Alexander Hamiltons Mary Goldsmith and Richard Goldsmith Three of the subscribing Witnesses to the within Will being duly and solemnly sworn on the Holy Evangelists of Almighty God depose and say that they saw the Testatrix Elizabeth Beale sign the same Will and heard her then publish and declare it to be her Last Will and Testament in the presence and hearing of Vachel Denton since deceased the other subscribing Witness thereto: that at the time of her so doing she was to the best of their apprehensions of these Deponents of sound and disposing mind and memory and that they did subscribe their respective names as witnesses to the said in the presence of the Testatrix and at her Request Sworn before Mr. Wm Macmurray, Deputy A. C. J.

In the Name of God Amen I Daniel Dulany being in health & in sound & disposing mind & memory (for to which I most gratefully thank the almighty and most merciful God) make this my Last Will & Testament this the Twenty seventh day of February 1752 in manner following: I give and Devise unto my son Walter (and his heirs) my tract of land called Charles's Bounty being in Baltimore County which I bought of James Powell Esq. Dunsays place in Baltimore being in his possession & also Flushing & Deep Creek point in Anne Arundel County in the same manner viz in fee simple I will I give and devise unto my son Denis & his heirs my tract of land in Kent County (called) called the Remains of Remainder of my Lords Gracious Grant which I bought of Charles Tomusell Smith containing Two Thous and Ceers and here by confirm all the Leases made by Gilbert Falconer James Paul Heath the Tenants comply with their parts. Item I give and devise unto my son Lloyd & the Heirs of his Body, all these my Lands. I bought of John Howell called Deal Town but more commonly Howells Point of Aquela Paea. & his wife of Henry Wothord & his wife of four hundred and fifty ceers part of Fair Promise which I bought of one Warner. all being contiguous to each other in Kent County. Item, I give and Devise unto my son Lloyd, & the Heirs of his Body, Eight Hundred and fifty Ceers part of Tasters (hance) laid out for Job Smith which I paid for & two hundred & seven ceers ceers laid out for Robert De Batts which I paid for and the whole to us conveyed to me by Benjamin Taster Esq. unless my son Daniel shall pay my said son Lloyd five hundred pounds Sterling when he shall attain his full age. and allow him Twenty five pounds.

J. De laing

Hearling yearly after my decease towards defraying the Expenses of his Execution then & in such case the devise of the said Lands to my son Lloyd is to be void & the Lands to descend to my son Daniel as my Heir and my true Intent & meaning is that in case my son Lloyd shall die in his minority. I understand that my son Daniel shall not be liable or Subject to the payment of the five Hundred pounds or any part of it whereas I paid Mr Samuel Hyde late merchant in London a balance of Eight Hundred and forty nine pounds. five Shillings & seven pence Sterling due to him from my lates former Husband Mr Samuel Chew which money I paid upon a supposition that my wife had a Right to a Third part of the personal Estate of her said late Husband and upon the like supposition allowed a part of Mr Samuel Chews Estate which she received after the Death of her late Husband in Virtue of a Bond past by the said Samuel Chew to Philemon Lloyd Esq. my lates father to be accounted for as part of her late Husbonds Estate amounting to about seventeen or Eighteen Hundred Pounds.

the the said it as a creditor & not in Right of Representation, My wife's Children will acquiesce in the account as settled (all errors and omissions being corrected) I hereby absolutely discharge them from all and every Part of the Money paid as already mentioned to Mr. Hyde and from any more than a Third part of What my wife Received of the Estate of Samuel Chew the Elder, But in Case my wife's Children will choose to have the Clear Balance of their Father's Estate than the Money paid Mr. Hyde and what my wife Received from or out of Old Mr. Samuel Chew's Estate is to be deducted as being my Property. Item In order as much as in me lies to prevent Disputes and

Towards her Support but in Case she dies unmarried then the Money to be Equally divided amongst her Brothers Daniel, Walter, Dennis & Lloyd

D. Dulany

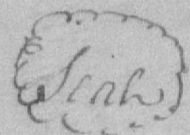

Item I give & bequeath unto my Grand daughters Rebecca and Rachel Knight Two Hundred and fifty Pounds current Money to be Equally divided between them in Case they shall respectively attain their Age of Sixteen Years or be married and in Case One of them shall happen to die before Marriage & before she attains to that Age then her Share to go to her Surviving Sister. Item I give and bequeath to my Grandson Daniel Heath One Hundred Pounds current Money to be Applied towards the Charge of his Education. Item I will and direct that my Grandson James Heath shall be kept at School at the Expence of my Estate such Competent Time as my Son Daniel shall think proper and request him to take the said James Heath under his Care and Endeavour to Instruct him in the Law I also will that the said James Heath shall be fed and clad at the Expence of my Estate till he attains his full Age. Item I and bequeath the Rest of my Personal Estate after the Payment of my Debts Legacies to my four Sons Daniel, Walter, Dennis & Lloyd to be Equally divided amongst them. ^{Item whereas} I have contracted with several Persons in Frederick County for several Parcels of Land Surveyed in my Name & at my Cost and have taken their Bonds which are not yet discharged I do hereby Assign unto all such as have paid or shall pay within Year after my Death the Money respectively due from them and the Interest thereof All the said Lands respectively Agreed with them for and such of the said Lands as have not been or shall not be paid for I will Appoint and direct shall be sold by my Exors or either of them and the Money arising by such Sale to be deemed part of my Personal Estate and as to those who bought Lots and have paid or shall pay for them but have not Deeds for them I devise such Lots to the Respective Persons

who contracted and paid for them in fee simple upon the same ~~upon the same~~ Terms as other Lots have been conveyed Item I constitute and Appoint my Sons Daniel and Walter to be Executors of this my Will & Guardians to my Son Lloyd and Daughter Mary not doubting but they will acquit themselves with Honour and Justice & take care that their Brother be virtuously and Liberally Educated in the Protestant Religion as professed by and in the Church of England and be brought up to some Reputable Business or Profession such as his Guardians shall think him most Capable of hereby Revoking all former Wills by me made and declaring this to be my last Will and Testament In witness whereof I set my Hand & Seal thereto being all in my own Hand Writing with some few Interlineations consisting of five Pages & hereof four are signed with my Name and my Seal added to this being the fifth Page in the presence of the Subscribing Witnesses to the Same
