Dear Mrs Eareckson

I have forwarded your letter to Lord Eden as he is away from his home for a few weeks. He had told me that to the best of his recollection Lady Caroline Eden lived for a time in one of the private apartments at Hampton Court Palace. She may also have lived elsewhere, possibly in Bath. Lord Eden will try to confirm that when he gets home.

He knows that she died on 4 April 1803, and that she was buried in Bath Abbey.

Yours sincerely

Maureen M Norbury (Mrs)
Private Secretary to Lord Eden
