

Ex-Gov. E. LOUIS LOWE, formerly of Maryland, but now a resident of Brooklyn, N. Y., is warmly urged for the position of Attorney-General in President Cleveland's cabinet by a writer in the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle. He is fitly described as "an able lawyer and a man of marked administrative ability and of incorruptible integrity."
