

News Travels, Fall 1997

The J. Millard Tawes Foundation in Crisfield recently purchased the birthplace and childhood home of Governor J. Millard Tawes, the 54th governor of Maryland. This 1887 Victorian home, which has been beautifully restored, will house the Governor's Library and Museum and is due to open in Spring of 1998.