Death's Doings in Caroline and Else-

Register of Wills Robert J. Jump died shortly before midnight on Tuesday night last at his home in this place, after an illness of several weeks, aged seventy-eight years. His illness followed a severe fall in his room and he was conscious only at intervals thereafter. The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at the late home of the deceased, Rev. H. A. G. Westerfield officiating. At the grave in the cemetery where interment was made there were Masonic rites by Temple Lodge. Surviving children are Mrs. Elizabeth E. Pippin, Robert J. Jump, Jr., of New York, and Charles C. Jump, of Derby, Connecticut. Mrs. Jump died on October 20th. Mr. Jump was a Republican, and in 1864 he was elected comptroller. He also held for a short time in the sixties the office of Clerk of the Circuit Court. In 1891 he was elected State's Attorney, and soon after the expiration of his term was appointed Register of Wills, to succeed the late James B. Steele, and was continued in that position until his death.
