

THE SUIT OFF HIS BACK

MAXIMILIAN FRANZ

The ever-dapper Chief Judge Robert M. Bell hands over a suit from his own wardrobe to kick off 'Law Suits for the Holidays,' a clothing drive sponsored by the Monumental City Bar Association. Gently used professional clothing will be passed along to the Annie E. Casey Foundation's family services division and the Greater Baltimore Urban League's Debate League for high school students. Joining Bell above are MCBA President Neil E. Duke and President Elect Kendra Young Ausby.
