American Properties real estate agency moving American Properties, a Howard County-based real estate agency, will move next month to the Amdahl Building, 10420 Little Patuxent Parkway in Columbia.

Orion Homes I Corp., a subsidiary of Laurel-based Orion
Construction, recently increased its ownership in American Properties by acquiring the remaining shares held by Don Reuwer, founder and chief executive of American Properties.

Paul Duncan, president of American Properties, and DeKermu
Nushann, senior vice president at American Properties and Orion Construction, made the announcement.

The new space will accommodate American Properties' agents and its New Home Marketing Group and corporate services.

Mr. Reuwer will concentrate his interests in Land Design & Development, a Columbia acquisition and development company he also founded.
