Suffragists To Plead For State-Wide Bill At Annapolis.

With celebrated suffragist orators from a distance and a number of Baltimore speakers of renown to plead for state-wide suffrage, the Woman's Suffrage Association this afternoon invaded this city and laid their cause before the Legislature.

The public hearing on the state-wide bill will be held at 3 o'clock before the Committee on Elections, and the promise is that such an array of facts and logic will be presented by the speakers as the solons have never before heard. At least five hundred suffragists will be in the delegation.

The principal addresses will be made by Rev. Anna Howard Shaw, the president of the national association; Miss Belle Kearney, of Mississippi and Rev. Olympia Brown, of Wisconsin. The Baltimore speakers will include Rev. John Roach Straton, Rev. Peter Aioslie, Dr. J. William Finck, Attorney John Grill, Mrs. Emma Maddox-Finck, Mrs. Mary B. Holton, D. Flora Pollack, Mrs. Mary Haslup and Mrs. Melya Coswell.

The meeting will be in charge of Miss Etta Maddox, the author of the bill. The delegation left Baltimore at 1 o'clock on a special train over the Short Line. Each member wore a button with the slogan "Equal Rights for All."

Tonight there will be a big meeting in the House of Delegates, when the Rev. Anna B. Shaw and Miss Belle Kearney will speak. The public is invited.
