

Samuel Owings Hoffman, a respected citizen of Baltimore, a prominent merchant there, and formerly State Senator, died in that city on Friday last. The Baltimore papers, also, announce the death, on Saturday last, of Professor Chapin A. Harris, a distinguished Dentist, and one of the most useful and laborious teachers and practitioners of Dentistry in the United States.