WOMEN'S AID TO PALESTINE

THERE is an interesting story behind the work of the American Zionist Medical Unit, the name of which has been changed to the Hadassah Medical Organization, which grew out of an American organization of Jewish women.

Hadassah in America ten years ago was a small society that was started by a group of women who wished to contribute their share to the development of Palestine. Today it is a national organization of approximately 15,000 members, distributed among 300 chapters in as many cities. The founder of Hadassah, Miss Scherzer, has always been interested in the development of Palestine. She has been active in the work of the organization and has been instrumental in the formation of chapters in many cities.

In 1910, a group of women interested in the development of Palestine met and formed Hadassah. They decided to send a trained nurse to Palestine to work in medical and social service. The nurse was to be trained in American schools and hospitals and to return to Palestine after completing her training.

In 1911, Miss Scherzer sent a nurse to Palestine. This nurse was the first of many who were to follow her. The nurse was trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service. She was followed by other nurses who were trained in American schools and hospitals.

In 1912, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1913, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1914, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1915, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1916, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1917, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1918, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1919, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1920, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1921, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.

In 1922, Hadassah began to send trained nurses to Palestine. These nurses were trained in American schools and hospitals and returned to Palestine to work in medical and social service.
Miss Alice L. Seligsberg. The national office is at 55 Fifth Avenue. Hadassah collects as much money as it can for the Hadassah medical organization and transmits 100 per cent of its collections directly to Palestine. The expenses of the organization are not covered by any percentage of donations but are paid by membership dues. All the hospital and clinic work of Hadassah is non-sectarian, for Moslems, Christians and Jews alike.