Girls' School Movement.—Plans have been made for starting in Baltimore a girls' school preparatory for college, under the patronage of Miss M. Carey Thomas, Miss Mary M. Gwinn, Miss Mary E. Garrett, Miss Elizabeth T. King and Miss Julia B. Rogers. Among the members of the faculty will be Miss Alice Goddard, of Cornell, Miss Charlotte Smith, of Cornell, Miss Mary S. Locke, of Smith College, Miss Eleanor A. Andrews, of Newham College, England, and others. Among those who have promised to act as examiners are Prof. Gildersleeve, of Johns Hopkins University, Miss Scott, of Bryn Mawr, Prof. Remsen, of Johns Hopkins, and Prof. E. B. Wilson, of Bryn Mawr.
