

WANTS JURY RECONVENED.

Sheriff Linthicum Urges The Importance of This Matter.

Sheriff Joshua Linthicum wants the grand jury reconvened for the purpose of indicting Henry Davis, the confessed assailant of Mrs. John Reid.

The Sheriff says further that should the Court not reconvene the jury in special session and through such a delay harm should come to the prisoner, he feels that the responsibility would rest with the Court.

State's Attorney Green, when asked his opinion as to the advisability of calling the grand jury in special session for this case without waiting for Mrs. Reid to recover sufficiently to appear against her assailant, said: "I should not feel prepared to take the case to trial without Mrs. Reid's presence and testimony."

Sheriff Linthicum feels that he has sufficient evidence to indict the man without Mrs. Reid's testimony.
