

Thomas Franklin and others
vs.
Mary Shaw, and others.

In Chancery 8th November 1833.

The Auditor reports to the Honorable the Chancellor that he has examined the proceedings in this Cause, and from them stated an account between the real Estate of John Shaw deceased, and the Trustees, and therein applied the proceeds of sale to the payment of the Trustees for their allowance for Commission and Expenses and the Costs of Suit, and distributed the balance among the devisees and the grantees of the devisees of the deceased.

He further reports that he has assigned to Thomas Franklin the Complainant so much of the late Thomas Shaw's proportion of the net proceeds of sale as was required to pay said Franklin's claim thereon, that he has then allowed the widow of Thomas Shaw two fifteenths of the residue of his proportion, and distributed the balance thereof equally among the children of the said Thomas Shaw.

Which is respectfully submitted
