

and It Has Come.

ring the session of the intermediate of court at Leonardtown on Tuesday, e Crane on the bench, Richard E. , a negro hailing from Newport neighborhood, this county, was admitted to the s a practicing attorney. Exactly how was accomplished we have some little sity to learn, and if the committee examined King will publish a list of uestions and answers by which his fications as an attorney in our courts etermined they will confer a lasting tion on all aspiring embryo legal . This same King, it will be remem- , applied for admission at our court years ago, and a committee was ap- ed to examine him, but his answers e simplest legal questions were so lous and he evinced such a great lack ily of legal knowledge, but also of cal common sense that our recolle- f the matter is that no report was made by the committee to the court, Ir. (?) King "took his eggs to another et," seemingly with better success e met here.—Port Tobacco Times.
