Dear Sir:-

I am in receipt of your letter of the 14th, enclosing letter of introduction to Hon. Robert P. Graham, at Salisbury, Md., relative to our services, which you require in the lynching cases. I will detail one of our men suitable for the work, having him arrive in Salisbury on Friday of this week and present himself to Mr. Graham. Our man can probably report verbally to Mr. Graham, and I will have copies of his written reports sent direct to you.

Yours truly,

Pinkerton's National Detective Agency,
