

DIVISION ORDER.

Third Division, M. M.

The much lamented death of Brigadier General WILLIAM H. WINDER, late a distinguished officer of the army of the United States, and a most valuable citizen, calls for the most decided and respectful expressions of regret, from the officers attached to the 3d Division, M. M.

The Cavalry, with the first regiment of Riflemen, (to which Gen. WINDER was attached as Lieut. Col. in the line) will act as the armed escort—the whole under the command of Brigadier General John S. Smith, of the 14th Brigade.

The other officers of the Division, and the other volunteer corps, will appear in uniform with side arms in mourning. The officers of the Division will wear crape on the left arm for thirty days, as a testimonial of respect to the memory of Gen. WINDER.

By order of Brig. Gen. McDonald, in the absence of the Maj. Gen.
J. H. LATROBE, 1st Aid de Camp, to the Maj. Gen. 3d M. M.

May 24, 1824.