friends laid before their last Monthly Meeting is not sufficiently united with, to go into an appointment ~~with~~, it is therefore left with women friends to proceed in, as way may open, the committee is continued —

No further business the Meeting concludes

At a Monthly Meeting of Women friends held at Sandy Spring the 1st of 4th 1812 —

~~the~~ representatives all present

The 1st, 2nd and 3rd ~~Queries~~ Queries have been read, and answers as received from our different preparative Meetings agreed on as follows; which compose a summary to the 2^d mess^{rs}

1) Answer to 1st Query, All our Meetings for worship and discipline have been held, and mostly well attended, Unbecoming behaviour therein avoided, the hour nearly observed —

Ans^r 2nd friends are generally careful to maintain love towards each other, tale-bearing and detraction discouraged, when differences arise some ⁱⁿdeavours are used to end them —

Answer 3rd we believe friends are mostly careful to attend to the requisitions of this Query —

Mary Moore, Elizabeth Evans, Hannah Lile, Margaret Cowman, Hannah Briggs, and Margaret Fudge are appointed to attend the ensuing Quarterly Meeting —

This Meeting is informed, the friends appointed to furnish the different preparative Meetings with copies of the epistles complied with their appointment —

One of the committee, on John Elgans case, report; they have not yet attended to their appointment, they are therefore continued and Mary Moore added to unite with them in the service —
