

At a Monthly Meeting of women friends held at Indian Spring the 17th of the 1st mo 1812

~~All~~ representatives present except one who was prevented by indisposition in her family;

The 1st, 2nd, and 9th Queries have been read amongst us, with written answers from each of our Preparatory Meetings which are in substance as follows;

Answer to 1st Query. All our meetings for worship and discipline have been attended, unbecoming behaviour mostly avoided therein, and the hour nearly observed by most friends.

Answer 2nd Friends are generally preserved in love towards each other, talebearing and detraction discouraged, no apparent differences amongst us.

Answer 9th We believe friends are mostly careful with respect to the particulars of this Query.

Mary More, Mary Brooke, Mary Cowman, Letitia Gilpin, Hannah Little, Ann Scott and Henrietta Bentley are appointed to attend the Quarterly meeting ~~with~~ as our representatives.

The friends appointed in Sarah Pindels case not make a full being ready to report ~~fully~~ are continued.

The consideration of the education of the Coloured people in friends families, and select schools, for the education of friends children, being again revised and weightily considered. the following friends are appointed (to visit friends families, and endeavour to strengthen their hands, on these important subjects, Mary More, Mary Brooke, Edith Scholfield, Mary Cowman, Margaret Judge, and Elizabeth Lukens.

This meeting concludes

At a Monthly Meeting of women friends held at Sandy Spring the 21st of the 2nd mo 1812. 37

~~All~~ representatives present except one who was prevented by indisposition.

All the friends appointed attended the Quarterly Meeting except one who was prevented by indisposition.

Friends have been informed that Sarah Pindel has received the testimony against her and did not understand that she expressed any intention of appealing.