A GARDENER wanted to live in the Country, about Ten Miles from Town.—A sober industrious Man may meet with Employment from RICHARD CATON.
Baltimore, March 16, 1789.

Alexander W. Davey;

Hath returned, and is now ready to attend to any proper business that may come within his line of Negotiation, so that the Employer will be fully satisfied.
Cash for BANK-NOTES, may be had by applying to said Broker at any time.

Many good citizens are often desirous of raising supplies by DEPOSITING, vulgarly called Pawning, VALUABLE ARTICLES; for a short time, yet choose not to make their situation known to the lender.—Any such may be assisted, by application to this Office, and at the same time be assured, the secret of each party shall be kept in a becoming manner.

Cash for Certificates, or Certificates for Cash.

For SALE, on general Terms,

A new three-story BRICK HOUSE, in South-Street, adjoining that wherein Mr. John M'Lure lately lived.—I will treat with any gentleman at Private Sale, for this valuable Property, until the first Saturday in April next; if not sold before that day, I shall, if the day is fair, sell it at Public Auction, at Ten o'Clock, on Tuesday next. If that day proves bad, the Sale will be on the next fair day proper for business. The terms will be made known at the time and place of sale. This Estate is subject to Six Pounds Renting per annum.

For SALE or BARTER,

Several valuable HOUSES in Baltimore-Town, some good Plantations in Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia. Also some back Lands in each of the said States mentioned, to be had either

TO BE LET by the Year, or on LEASE,

Many pleasing ESTATES, some in Town, others in the Country.

The Public are hereby informed, that ESTATES put into my Office for Sale, will not only have a private trial, but if that fails I shall, with a small additional expense to the owner, exhibit the same to the public, and business is managed without the owner's appearing, until the property is sold.

Spanish Dollars for Gold, or Gold

for Spanish Dollars, very often may be had at this Office.
TO BE LET, to a good Tenant for one Year.

The front Room, or Store and Cellar

of the House which Mr. Andrew Boyd lives in—a back building containing five useful Rooms, a large Warehouse and Stable, on a wide alley.—This stand is as good as any in Baltimore-Town, for the retail or wholesale business, being situated in Baltimore, commonly called Market-Street, between Calvert and Charles-Street. For particulars, apply to this Broker only.

Will be RENTED, for a Year, or Term of Years,

That convenient new two-story Brick House, situate in Chatham-Street, between St. Paul's Lane and Charles-Street; has four Rooms on each floor, and an excellent Cellar under the whole; has a Garden 34 feet by upwards of 100 feet. This is the house that Francis Curtis, Esq. has occupied for some time past. Apply as above.

I shall constantly buy and sell the several articles of Produce, all kinds of Public Securities, and what is commonly called Black Money.

Money obtained on Bottomry, and on Mortgage, when it is possible to get it done.

Landed Estates, Houses in Towns, Vessels at Sea, or in Ports; bought or sold; and bargained by him.
TAXES paid in a frugal manner, if this Broker is employed.

The Manufacturers assisted in procuring

raw materials, and in vending those articles they make good. Supercargoes and Captains' trouble lessened in selling and purchasing Cargoes, on application to this Office.

For SALE, or BARTER,

That neat new framed DWELLING-HOUSE, lately occupied by Captain Matthew Pauson.—The situation is pleasant, on one of the most airy Streets of Howard's-Hill—For Lease better approved. The purchaser will doubtless wish to see the premises; I will do myself the pleasure to show it, or cause it to be shown, at any time. Apply to this Broker.

I have a WAREHOUSE to rent, situate

in Charles-Street.
For SALE,

The remains of a STORE.—The purchaser of this may become possessed of a delightful stand for any sort of business, on very moderate terms.—Call on me and know more about it.

From this day I shall attend regularly

at my Office from twelve to one o'clock before dinner, and in the afternoon from two to three each business day; but may be found there likewise the other hours, when I am not otherwise employed. My reason for fixing two stated hours of attendance is, for want of a Coffee-House, where the inhabitants might duly meet to transact their different business.

Wanted for the Ready Rino—a few

Finals, Depreciations, and Loan-Office Certificates.
For SALE,
