then ask'd, why he did not make known the Truth Time enough to save an innocent Man's Life? he said, the Prisoners had been his School fellows, and he had not discover'd it now, if they had not been taken up. On this and other corroborating Evidence the Prisoners were found GUILTY. The Manner of this horrid Scene being brought to Light is very remarkable. One James Bush, being intimate with Welch, went one Sunday a walking with him, and among other Discourse, an Argument arose about People that were hang'd wrongfully. Welch said, Coleman was hang'd wrongfully, he was sure; for Tom Jones, Jemmy Nj-chols, and himself did the Fact, and in coming home shew'd Bush the two Trees between which they laid the Woman down. Some Months after this Bush meeting his Father upon London Bridge, said to him, Father, I have not been well, and I fear I shall die. I have something to disclose to you, —Coleman was hang'd wrongfully.—The old Man was much surpriz'd, and anxious to know the Particulars, and took his Son to a Public Houfe, where he was inform'd of all Welch had said. On which he went immediately in search of Jones, found him, and charged him with the Fact. He trembled and said,—what signifies it:—the Man is hang'd and the Woman dead,—and Nobody can hurt us. But afterwards recollecting himself, he added, we were concern'd with a Woman, but who can tell that was the Woman Coleman did for?—This however furnish'd Grounds of Suspicion, and was the Means of bringing these unnatural Villains to Justice.—Coleman, after giving a very minute Detail of every Circumstance that attend'd his Profe-cation in the solemn Declaration already mention'd, wherein he clears himself of the Guilt wherewith he was charged, and for which he was to suffer, and shews the Hardships he met with in the unfair Proceedings against him, concludes thus: "I do most solemnly protest, that I am not in any Manner Guilty of that most inhuman Murder of Sarah Green, neither was I at Newington, or in Kennington Lane that Night, that the cruel Fact was committed on Sarah Green. This I declare as a dying Man, and I sincerely believe (as the Rev.
Mr. Wilson told me several Times) if I was directly or indirectly Guilty of that Murder, and go out of the World with denying it, that eternal Damnation would be my Portion. I have the Satisfaction to declare myself to the World (as I have often done to the Rev. Mr. Wilson) that I never was so serene in Mind, or so easy in my Conscience in my Life, as I am at this Time. It is an inexpressible Pleasure to me, that I am soon to leave this very wicked World. Nothing gives me Concern but the Distress that I leave my poor Wife and two Infants in."—We are sorry to say his Concern for his Family was too justly founded; for the World believing the Father Guilty, neglected the Children; and, if we are rightly in-form'd, they perish'd for Want. The Mother, drove to Despair, is an Object of real Charity.

Sept. 7. They write from Glastonbury, that last Week John Banks, Esq; of Dorset, G. Dorington, Esq; of Hoxington, and John Fielding, Esq; of Middlesex, who were there for the Benefit of the Waters, attend'd with the Mayor of the said Town, observing great Numbers of very miserable Wretches, who besides their being afflicted with dreadful Distempers, were Penniless, and a great Distance from their Homes, made a Collection from Houfe to Houfe among all the Strangers there in Town, and raised the Sum of 101. 4s. 6d. for their Relief; which the said Gentlemen carefully distributed to those who wanted it: In this Distribution the greatest Care was taken to prevent the Encouragement of Beggars, Mumpers, and Impostors, the Mayor himself attending the whole Day, to punish those that were found so: By this Collection near fourscore unhappy Creatures were most sensibly relieved, great Numbers of whom had sold their Goods, Cloaths, and every Thing that would fetch a little Money to come from the greatest Distance, to Glastonbury, in Hopes of meeting with a Cure for their Disorders; in which many of them have been so happy as to succeed, and others in a fair Way of Recovery. What was remarkably shocking was, that scarce one of those who applied for this Charity, had a milder Distemper than the Evil, Leprosy, Asthma, or white Swellings; and it might with Truth be said, that there never was a more cheerful Contribution, and that so small a Sum as 101. never did so much real Good since the Memory of Man; for of those that received it, not one could be found, on the strictest Examination, that had either been a common Beggar, or had received Alms from their own Parish.
An excellent Charity this, and well worthy imitation.

Sept. 17. The last Letters from Italy bring an Account of a whimsical and foolish Affair, which, notwithstanding, is like to have very serious and fatal Consequences. Some Time ago Cardinal Doria, who is the Apostolic Legate, or Lord-Lieutenant at Bologna, taking Offence at some indiscreet Expressions let fall by the Chevalier Catziolari, caused him to be seized; and not long after banished the Territory under his Jurisdiction. A little after the Chevalier obtained a Pair of Colours in the Service of the Duke of Modena, upon which he ventured to return into the Bolognese; and the Cardinal Legate was no sooner inform'd of it, than he caused him to be arrested, and sent to Fort Urban, of which he gave immediate Notice to the Court of Modena; where seeming to meet with little Attention, the Cardinal, after some Weeks Imprisonment, dismissed the Chevalier, and banished him a second Time. A few Days after he was dismiss'd, the Commandant of Fort Urban had Occasion to go to Modena, but was no sooner within the City Gates, than he was seiz'd and sent to Prison; from whence, after some Confinement, he was dismiss'd with a gentle Intimation, that if ever he set his Feet in the Dominions of Modena again, he should be shewn the shortest Way to the Gallows. This has so incens'd the People of Bologna, that about the Beginning of last Month a Body of one hundred and fifty Men made an Irruption into the Villages of Campo Santo and St.
Cesarin, destroyed all before them, and not sparing even the Inhabitants; of whom fourteen were killed upon the Spot, and a great many more deperately wounded.

ANNAPOLIS.

Our Rivers have all Bridges of Ice, over which Horses, and Carriages pass with Safety; and the Bay, as low down as this Place, which is about eleven Miles wide, appears to be froze quite across.
In the late very hard Weather, two Negroes near Elk Ridge, being from their Master's Houfe in the Night, were froze to Death on their Return home.

Last Week WILLIAM FITZHUGH, Esq; of Virginia, was married to Mrs. ROUSBY (Widow of Mr. JOHN ROUSBY, deceased), a Gentlewoman of excellent Accomplishments, and a handsome Fortune.

We hear the Small Pox is very rife in Baltimore County, and in some Parts of this. Col. William Hammond, of Baltimore-Town, and several other Persons of Note, have lately died of that Distemper. [It has been confidently reported that the Small Pox is now in this Town, which has prevented many Persons from coming to Town, to transact Business: But we can assure the Public; that Distemper has not been for some Years, nor now is, in any Family in this Town.]

Last Friday Martha Bassett and Mary Powell were hang'd at Toppa, pursuant to Sentence, for the Murder of Mrs. Clarke. The Execution of John Berry, the wicked Contriver of this Scene of Villainy, was deferr'd 'til Yesterday, when he was to be executed near the Place where the Murder was committed, and afterwards hung in Chains.

THE Subscriber having for some Time past declined carrying on the Blacksmith's Business in the City of Annapolis, hereby gives Notice, that he now carries on the said Business as formerly, at the same Place; and makes all new Work at 10d. per Pound, rough and un-filed: He therefore hopes for the Continuance of the Favours of his former Customers, who may rely on being well used, as well as all others who shall be pleas'd to employ him; but at the same Time desires his Customers not to be displeas'd, if asked for Payment after their Work is done.

He also as formerly carries on the Business of making Cordage of all Sorts and Sizes, fitting for any Vessels; where all Persons may be readily supplied, in as good and cheap a Manner as in England.
