RAN away from the Ship Neptune, lying in Patuxent River, whereof the Subscriber is Master, on the 7th of May last, two Seamen; one named John Ewini, a Welshman, about 25 Years of Age, a very strong made Fellow, of a dark brown Complexion, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and wears a Wig or Cap.

The other named John Parker, an Englishman, a little thin Fellow, aged about 30 Years, about 5 Feet 5 Inches high, of a fair Colour, wears a Cap or Wig. I cannot describe their other Apparel: They took with them what Things they had, so may alter their Garb as it suits them. They took with them a small new Boat about 12 Feet long; she has a Turpentine Outside, and I think, is painted red and blue on the Inside, and a back Board abaft, painted red and blue, and two small Oars or Paddles painted red.

Whoever takes up and secures the said Seamen, so that I may have them in ten or fourteen Days, shall have FIVE POUNDS STERLING Reward: And whoever has the Boat in Possession, and will let me know by Letter or otherwise, shall have Thirty Shillings Currency Reward.

RAN away from a Sloop lying in Herring Bay, belonging to the said Ship Neptune, on the 14th of June last, a Sailor named Cornelius Fifer, born in Germany, about 25 Years of Age, a well set Fellow, of a brown Complexion. He was with Capt. Sargeant in Patuxent about 4 or 5 Years ago, and served an Apprenticeship to him.
I have lately heard that he is now lurking about Patuxent, and has been seen on board some of the Ships in that River.

Whoever takes up and secures the said Runaway, and gives me timely Notice thereof, shall have Twenty five Shillings Sterling Reward; or the Difference in Currency.

RAN away from the said Ship Neptune, on the 22d of June last, a Sailor named John Hall, an Englishman, aged about 22 Years, a pretly straight made Fellow, of a fair Complexion, had a soft effeminate Voice, and wears a Wig or Cap. Whoever takes up and secures the said Hall,
and gives me timely Notice thereof, shall have Twenty five Shillings Sterling Reward, or the Difference in Currency; besides what the Law allows.

RAN away on the 6th Day of July last, from a Schooner lying in Sassaunanna, belonging to said Ship Neptune, two Sailors; one named Richard Langhorn, an Englishman, about 30 Years of Age, a tall straight Fellow, has very slender Legs, a fair Complexion, wears a Wig or Cap: He is a great Lover of spirituous Liquors, and when warm with them a great Talker, and very quarrellome. The other named Stephen Clark, an Englishman, a likely well made, young Fellow, has a black Visage, about 22 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 7 Inches high, and wears a Wig or Cap.
They took with them the Boat belonging to said Schooner, their Chests, Hammocks, and Bedding, with some other Things; and I suppose intend for Philadelphia: The Boat would carry about two Hogheads of Tobacco; she was ceiled and designed for a Ferry Boat.

Whoever takes up and secures said Runaways, so that they may be had again, shall have Fifty Shillings Sterling Reward for each Man; or the Difference in Paper Currency; and Thirty Shillings Currency for the Boat, if brought to Patuxent River.
