THIS

THIS GAZETTE [No. 417.]

commences the Ninth Year of its Publication; and the Publisher takes this Opportunity to return his most grateful Thanks to such of his good Customers as have been Encouragers of it, and paid off their yearly Subscriptions as often as they had Opportunity, or they were demanded; and to assure them that the utmost Care shall be taken to deserve the Continuance of that Encouragement which they have hitherto given this Paper. Such of his Customers who are long, long in Arrears, are requested to pay off their Accounts, and enable the Printer to Render unto all their Dues, and carry on his Business. Let such read Jeremiah xxii, 13. Woe unto him—that useth his Neighbour's Service without Wages, and giveth him not for his Work.

The frequent Complaints which are made of the vile Practice of some People, who break open Packets which do not belong to them, I cannot help finding Fault with; and if these prying Offenders against the Public don't desist from that pernicious Custom, it will have a Tendency to put a Stop to the Publication of this Paper: If nothing else will prevent that unjust and scandalous Custom, I intend to publish a large Reward for any who shall discover the Persons guilty of the like Offence hereafter; who really deserve no better Epithet than Piferers and Pickpockets; for they either rob the Person subscribing of what is his Due, or deprive the Printer of a Customer. By Means of this fraudulent Practice above a Hundred Subscribers, in less than two Years, have declined taking the Gazette.

I have Room to hope, that this Gazette has hitherto been useful, entertaining, and instructive to most of my Customers; sure I am, it has been my utmost Endeavour to render it so, for the Publisher of a public Paper has all Talents to please; if it has met with Censures from some, let the Public judge how justly they have been bestowed; I will not take upon me to judge in my own Cause: I look upon it to be impracticable for any Publisher whatever to please all Readers, and shall therefore make myself very easy about such Reflections as may be thrown upon me by Persons who are biased and prejudiced. All judicious and sensible Men will acknowledge the Advantage arising from a public Paper; and that THIS has been of some Use in this Province, I think I may be allowed to affirm, consistent with the Rules of Modesty, notwithstanding a severe Reflection lately pass'd upon it by a certain prolix Orator, in a very public Assembly, That it was the common Conveyancer of Scandal and Nonse; and many other as good-natured Observations, too tedious to repeat: A heavy Charge, if true! a Charge of such a Nature, that had I asserted half as much of that Gentleman in MY WAY, that is, put it in Print, which in effect could not have rendered it much more public than the Method he took with me, I might possibly have smarted for it; but it happens that in some Cases, a greater Liberty is allowed to the Tongue than the Press. All the Reply I shall make to the Usage of that learned and leguicuous Gentleman, is, That in the Opinion of a great many, this bold Assertion of his had as much Truth in it, as it had Relation to the Argument he then had in Hand; and it is thought by some tolerable Judges, that had he, with his usual Assurance, Verbofity, and Vociferation, recited a Part of the old Ballad of CHEVY CHASE, to add Weight to his Reasoning, it might have served his Purpose as well, and been every whit as pertinent, as this [here] CHARITA-BLE and HUMANE Reflection.

I am, the Public's

Devoted and Obligated

Humble Servant,

THE PRINTER.

WHEREAS Madam Margaret Ward, deceased, by her last Will, did devise One hundred Pounds Sterling to such of her Relations on the Western Shore as Richard Bennett, Esq; deceased, should direct; and in Case he should die before the Payment thereof, then to such of her Relations as I should direct; and as Mr. Bennett did not direct to whom the said Money should be paid, and as it is unknown to me who of her Relations are in the most necessitous Condition; these are, therefore, to desire her said Relations to repair to me, at Annapolis, in the second Week of the next General Assembly, in order that I may direct the Payment of the said Money, as near as may be, according to the Intent of the Testatrix.
