Nathan Wright, Reg.

M A R Y

The SPEECH of the Honorable DINWIDDIE, Esq; Lieutenant Commander in Chief, of the Colony of Virginia, to the General Assembly of said Province, on Thursday the 11th of November, 1753.

Gentlemen of the Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Burgesses.

IT is with great Pleasure in me to find that the Legislative Capacity, and the Harmony, in the present Session will begin, in the same Manner; and I am glad to see that with Unanimity, for the Service of your Majesty, and properly presented. I shall send a Copy of sundry Paragraphs of your Agent's Letters to me, in and to the Acts passed last Session, to lay before you a Letter from the able Lords of Trade, recommending Friendship and Affection to the King, the Usefulness of giving a present to foreign Protestants to settle in this Dominion; a Copy of their Remonstrance and Majesty, on your revised Laws; Commissioners of the Customs and Treasury, in regard to your Tobacco; a Copy of an Instruction from your Majesty, granting me Power to give my Authority to all which I have formerly repealed; to all which I am heartily sorry, for the bad Quality; which I conceive me to be the Neglect and Dishonesty of the Warehousemen, and the appointing of the different Warehousemen, and Books of the Inspectors, would remove the Complaints now published.

Since your last Adjournment, I have received several Informations from the Indians, and from the Indians, of a large Body of Indians in their Interest, having invaded His Majesty's Territories, and built a Fort on His Majesty's Land, the Advice of the Council, I have considered Presents to the Indians, lies, and in Friendship with us. I am much surprized at the Conduct of the Indians, and appear full of Resentment; and Commissioners, sent from me, on attachment to the British Interest, Colonies on this Continent.

And as I intend to meet the Chiefs of the Indians, next May, at York, I am in great Hopes then, to make a lasting Alliance with them. This Attempt of the French to the Ministry at Home, by several of this Continent, and by them it was laid before the King, of His paternal Love, Affection, He bears to His Subjects on this Continent, with His Royal Authority, I also received Letters from the Indians, on this Continent, which I have sent to the Ministry at Home, and there great Consequence to His Majesty, and to His Subjects here, I do
