Heart, only faid, "Come, let us at least keep the Fe st on the Feast Day; Dinner will be ready, and let us drink and drive Care away; and may never greater Misfortune befal an honest Man." Accordingly they went back to Dinner, and from the Company convened the rejected Brisegroom, got 100 Marks and all Charges, with which he was perseally satisfied, and thought himself at least as we'l off as his Rival.

On Monday last, about 5 a Clock in the Af-ternoon, a Thunder cloud burst over the House of Mr. Joseph Gutterres in Orange-street, which tore off the Shingles of that, and the House of Dr. Chovet, being both under one Roof, at which time the Lightning entered both Houses. Mrs. Gutteres was then fitting in a very low Chair in the Back hall, and the Lightning went over her Head, where it battered the Wall, without offending her; in the first Floor it dispersed itself in every Part of the Rooms. solintering the Frames of many Pic the Rooms, splintering the Frames of many Pictures that were glazed, without damaging the Glasses over them. A drassing Looking glass particularly, mounted on two Pillars, and a Nest of Drawers uncerneath, had all the Frame and other Wood work shaken to Pieces, without over husting Wood work shaken to Pieces, without ever hurting the Glass, saving a little of the Quick silver in one of the Corners, which it had melted; it likewise passed behind a Chest of Drawers, where it enpassed behind a Cheft of Drawers, where it entered the Crevices, and only cracking the back Part it visited every Drawer. When this happened Dr. Chovet and his Wife were both steeping in Bed in their lower Back room, but being suddenly the folked awaked, found themselves surrounded with forked Lightning darting on all Sides of the Room, en-tring through the Partition wall, and at the Window, but through the great Mercy of Providence, neither he, nor his Wife were hurt, though the great Quantity of sulphurous Vapour had almost suffocated them. The Doctor's Sword and Cane, which flood by his Bed fide were both fruck with the Lightning, and so powerful was its Force, that it melted a little of the Gold from the Head of the Care, and likewise some Part of the Blade of the Sword near the Point, which teemed to have been done without affecting the Scabbard; in the upper Back room and Garret, it likewise committed great Havock, by breaking the Windows, and Frames of the Shutters, it melted likewife feveral Iron and Steel Instruments that were there, but it particularly shivered a Fishing rod into so many small Splinters, that it appeared like a Bundle of

NEW YORK, December 3.

The Confusion in this City, occasioned by Counterfeit Copper English Halfpence amongst us, is almost inconceivable;—for notwithstanding the large Quantities of good Pence we have long had, there is now hardly any Sum offered, but there are Counterfeit Ones intermixed; and to fuch a Degree of Sufpicion, is the common People railed, that many good Pence, which have past current perhaps for above twenty Years past are now refused.

What Punishment must be owing to those Pests of Society, who have thus artfully and villainously introduced those base Halfpence amongst us, by which the Fair Traders, as well as the Poor, are which the Fair-Traders, as well as the Poor, are Extract of a Letter from Bridgetown, in Barbados, dated November 5, 1753.

We have lately been in a good Deal of Confusion here, occasiond by the Negroes, a Number of whom, for some Time past, have done Abun dance of Mischies. A white Man, passing quietly along one Night, about Nine a Clock, was met with by four of them, who knock'd him down, and cut and bruised him in, so cruel a Manner, that he died from after. Three of the Fellows are taken, two of which have been gibbeted, and the taken, two of which have been gibbeted, and the Trial of the third comes on To morrow; the reft mot yet found. We are oblig'd to have a Number of Men to watch the Town every Night, and a Company of Horsemen patrole daily round the Island. One of the Negroes (who is still alive in the Gibbets, tho' he has been up eight Days) told the Magistrates, that Christmas Eve (had it not been discover'd) was the Time intended for the Destruction of the Town, and its Inhabitants, and
