ANNAPOLIS.

On Tuesday Night arrived off South River, the Ship Betsey, Capt. John White, who brings Advice That his own Crew, and the Crews of every Merchant Ship in the River Thames, were pressed in one Night, to man a Fleet of Men of War, designed to follow and observe a French Fleet, ready to sail from Brest, bound, as it is imagined, to the East Indies. Likewise, that the supposed Plague in France, is quite stopped, having proved no more than a common Sickness.

We have just heard, that Mrs. Brookes, a Widowed Gentlewoman, near Upper Marlborough, fell suddenly into the Fire, and no Assistance being near, perished in the Flames.
