Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Jamaica, to his Friend in Boston, dated Kingston, June 15, 1754.

"We are now to acquaint you, that there is an Account come in a Vessel that touch'd here from the Havanna, of a very considerable Force having sail'd from thence with a Resolution to root out all the English at the Bay, and to make a Settlement of their own: The Particulars are as follow:
 On the twelfth of April, Don Juan Elanos in a 24 Gun Ship; in Company with a large Xebec, both fitted with disciplined Soldiers, sail'd from the Havanna for the Key Mugar, the Place of Rendezvous, where they had appointed to meet one Don Novogrette, the present Governor of Campeachy, with 20 Sail of Vessels, such as Brigs, Schooners, Sloops, &c. They also expected to be joind by a considerable Body from Rio Dulce, so that they might make in the whole two Thousand Men from Key Mugar, and to proceed to the Bay of Honduras, with a Determination to extirpate all the Logwood Cutters, and to make a Settlement of their own; and from thence they are ordered to go to the Musquito Shore, and to do the same there."

CHARLES-TOWN, (South Carolina).
 July 18. The Account in our last of the Young Prince George Sloop being taken by the French was premature. The Captain (Roffe) had been to trade at a Place called Port Dallis, and was made Prisoner with his People, by the Natives, but made his Escape; and his Sloop was safe in Gambia River when the last Vessel came away. Capt. Roffe writes, that a Sloop from London, one Trumbull Master, had been taken at Port Dallis, and plundered of her Cargo, Sails and Rigging, and the Captain with all his Crew carried off by the Natives; but that the Vessel was re-taken by a London Snow passing that Way.
 The Schooner Two Friends, of New England, John Burges Master, bound from this Port for London, foundered in her Passage; but the Captain and Crew saved themselves in their Boat, and met with a Vessel at Sea that took 'em up.

NEW-YORK.
 August 5. Early on Wednesday Morning last, we had a very violent Gale of Wind and Rain, in these and Parts adjacent, which we hear has done Abundance of Damage to the Indian Corn in general, but more especially in breaking down and destroying much of that which was of a forward and tall Growth.
 Friday last ended the July Term of the Supreme Court of this Colony, when Patrick Cramer was indicted and tried for killing Mr. Cregier of this City: The Jury found him guilty of Manslaughter, and he was burnt in the Hand accordingly.
