any Steps tending to a Schism, on Paia of Seizure of his Temporalities, and being proceeded against as a Violator of the Laws of the Kingdom; and all Ecclefiastics are likewise charged to obey the faid Parliament's Arrets on this Subject.

Warfaw, May 15. The 3d Instant a Fire broke out at Brzedborz, a little Town near Petrikow, and entirely coasumed the Place, except five Houles.

In the Night between the 9th and 10th Infant, the like Accident happen'd in this City, and burnt down fifteen Houses.

Berlin, May 21. Last Friday we had a dreadful Storm of Hail, Thunder and Lightning: In the Village of Wilmersdorff several Houses were con-funed by Lightning; and the Hail, which was as large as Walnuts, has done a great deal of Mis-chief to the Fruits of the Earth.

The King will review To morrow all the Gar-rison of this City, and some other Regiments quartered in the adjacent Towns; and on the 1st of next Month his Majesty will set out for Pomerania, where a Camp is to be formed near Stargard. The King's intended Journey to Silesia may possibly be possponed till the Bod of Summer: In the mean Time his Majesty keriodeen Time his Majesty has ordered an Account to be taken of the Quantity of Grain in all the Magazines throughout his Dominion

Lifton, April 23. Lie Saturday a Fire broke out at a Diffiller's, and fined fo rapidly, that wards of twenty Houses here reduced to and many others much damaged. It is not how many Persons have perished in the Fli we know that feveral are miffing.

Paris, May 20. Our Hopes of the P speedy Return are vanished. Two-Ar proposed, which these Magistrates rout with: By the first the Parliament it all ly resume their Functions, and every refused to do it should be deprived of for ever: And, according to the se Article. the Parliament should never quit on pend the public Service for any Cause whatsoever, without the King's Permission; and to this they were to bind themselves by Oath. These Overtures being rejected, the Members of the Parliament have received fresh Orders to remain in the Towns assigned for their Abode.

Brest, May 2. Pursuant to Orders from Court we continue to build Ships of War as fast as possible, and shall launch one of 60 ms in a few Days.

A Man of War called the Active; commanded by M. de Requeseuille, is sail'd for the Mediterra-

The Experiment of making Salt Water sweet, according to the Method of Mr. Appleby, which is approved of in England, has been successfully tried here.

Leghern, May 6. The Navigation of this Coast is again become free, by the Retreat of the Barba Corfairs. We are inform'd that twelve Tunifian ry Córsairs. We are inform d that twelve I uniuan Vessels are return'd home, after taking only two Spanish Barks in their Cruizes, on board of which they did not make above 30 Prisoners.

Paris, June 1. The 23d of last Month the King fill'd up the Vacancies in the Navy, by making 34 Captains, 64 Lieutenants, and 90 Ensigns.

Cork, May 9. Yesterday the Party of Solders, sent last Thursday in the Pursuit of Morty Ogue O'Sullivan, the Ring leader of the Villains who murdered John Puxly, Efq; the 10th of March laft, returned from Cork to Beerhaven. About Twelve on Saturday Night they arrived under the Command of Lieutenant Appleton, and were advanced near the House before Sullivan's Scouts could give the Alarm, and thereupon made their Escape. The House being surrounded, Sullivan threw open the Door in his Shirt, with a Blunderbuss in his Hand; but not being able to escape, he sent his Party out one by one, thinking the Soldiers would have drawn off to pursue them; which Scheme failing, Sullivan's Wife, with her Child and Nurse, came out and begg d for Quarter, which was granted. The Officer then ordered the House to be set of Fire, which being with some Difficulty effected, (the heavy Rains having rendered the Men's Arms useless,) the Party within were obliged to come out likewise. Sullivan, after twice snapping his Blan derbuss, which missed Fire, as did also the Soldiers Pieces, was at last that dead, and several wounded at laft that dead, and feveral wound At the fame Time the King's Bost went round, and funk Sullivan's Sloop. Two Priloners taken were lodged in the South Goal, and the Body of Sullivan laid in the Barrack Yard till further Orders.

May 14. This Morning a Fire happened at Offon, a Village about a Mile from Stratford upon Avon, which burnt the Houles of Mr. Stanley and faid Archbishop to authorize directly or indirectly Mr. Ward, with all their Furniture, Barns, Stables the Curates, Vicars, and other Ecclefiastics, to take and four or five other Houses, with the Out-houses, Barns, Ricks of Corn, &c. and nine Horfes be-longing to Mr. Irons, whose Loss is reckneed to amount to about Two Thousand Pounds.

May 15. This Night, about eight o'Clock, a Fire broke out at the Sugar-House of Messieurs Barret and Company, near Paul's Wharf in Thames Street, which burnt with the utmost Violence for about three Hours before it could be got under; and consumed the House where it began, great Part of a Timber-Yard adjoining, and also damaged two Houses. As soon as the Lord-Mayor was acquainted with the Calamity he went to the Place, and gave the greatest Encouragement to the Firemen, &c. as did also Sir Robert Ladbroke and both the Sheriffs: When it was known at the Tower, the Commandant sent a Party of the Guards, who, together with the Peace Officers, gave the useful People an Opportunity of doing their Business, and thereby prevented the Fire from spreading.

May 20. This Day came on to be tried in the Court of King's Bench, before Sir Dudley Ryder, Lord Chief Justice of that Court, affisted by the Judges Wright, Dennison and Foster, a Cause in which Sir Harry Frankland, Bart. was Plaintiff, and the Lady of the Deceased Sir Thomas, Defendant, in Order to fet aside the Will of the late Sir Thomas Frankland, upon a Presumption of his not being of sound Mind and Memory at the Time of his making it. It appeared, in the Course of the Trial, that Sir Thomas had made three Wills; the first in the Year 1741, the second in 1744, and the third in 1746 : In the first but a flender Pro vision was made for his Lady; by the second the Family Estate in Yorkshire, of 2500 l. per Annum was bequeathed to her for her natural Life, after which it was to revert to the Male Heir of the Family; by the third Sir Thomas's whole Estate, both real and personal, was lest this Lady to be disposed of at her Discretion, without any Provision made for the Heirs at Law. This Trial lasted from Monday Morning till between nine and ten o'Clock on Wednesday Night: The Jury was special, confishing of Men of Property in the County of York, who, after withdrawing for about an Hour and Half, returned with a Verdict in Favour of the fecond Will made in 1744; the Validity of that made in 1746 being set aside.

May 25. By the St. Joseph, a Register Ship, arrived at Cadiz, from Carthagena, we have the following Particulars of the Loss of the Sultana, a Register Ship. Being upon her Departure for Car-thagens, for Cadiz, she loosened her Hold to the Cattle, and a violent Wind rising in that Instant, drove her on the Anchors of another Vessel; by which Means the foon filled with Water. Her Cargo confifted of 700Serons of Cocheneal, 300 ditto of Indigo, 1000 ditto of Jallap, and other valuable Articles. Four hundred Serons that were next at Hand, were faved without Damage; and the rest of the Cargo all faved, but confiderably damaged. It is thought the Ship will be condemn'd.

May 30. The Selfions began this Day at the Old-Bailey, when the adjourn'd Motion for Arrest of Judgment and a new Trial of Elizabeth Canning came on to be argued before the Court, five Judges being upon the Bench. Nine of the Jutymen being examined, severally declared they did abide by their Verdict as being entirely according to their Consciences, and the Foreman afferted the same of a tenth, who would have been present, if not neceffarily hindered. The Judges who fat during the whole Trial gave their Opinion, that the Verdick was a good one, and perfectly agreeable to the Evidence. In the End, the Court proceeded to pass Judgment upon her, which was, That she, should suffer one Month's Imprisonment, and after that be transported for seven Years.

June 1. From the Bast Indies we have Advice of the Death of Mr. Cockerill, Deputy Governor of Fort St. David's; wherein he is facceeded by

Richard Stark, Efg;

June 4. From Hanover we have Advice of a terrible Fire at Oene in the County of Bentheim, whereby that Village and the Church belonging to it have been entirely bornt down.

Extraß of a Letter from Pragus, May 18.

"It is impossible to express the Terror and Confusion we are in on Account of the Fire that broke out last Night at eleven o'Clock, and is not ver extinguished: Divers Houses are still blazing, as well in the Jews Quarter, called the Old-Town, as in some Quarters contiguous to it. Many of the Persons employ'd in putting out the Fire and saving the Goods of the Inhabitants, have perish'd in the Plames. All our Garrison is drawn out, part being under Arms, and the self labouring to stop the Configuration."

Letters from Barent, of the 23d, inform w, that the Fire at Prague was not master'd till the toth in the Afternoon. Great Part of the Jews Quatter has been confumed, as alforthe greatest Part of three other Streets, besides several Convents.

The Amsterdam Gazette gives us the following Intelligence, dated from London, May 24.

The Duke de Mirepoix, Ambassador from his Most Christian Majesty, had a Conference the 22d Instant with the Barl of Holdernesse, to whom he communicated, as we are affured, the French Court's Answer to the Representations made by the Earl of Albemarle. The Intent of those Representations was to cause the respective Commissaries to resume their Negociation about the Affairs of the Two Crowns in America. It is pretended that the proposed Convention between the English and French East India Companies was also brought on the Tapis in the faid Conference, and that the Barl of Holdernesse imparted to the Duke se Mirepoix the last Resolutions of the English Company on this Head: So that we cannot yet tell whether the Convention will take Place; but we expect full Information in this Point upon the Return of the Express dispatched to Versailles by the French Am. baffador.

Yesterday Lord Wenman and Sir James Dash: wood, Bart. took their Seats in the House of Commons, on the Double Return for the County of Oxford.

June 6. They write from Chippenham, in Wilts, that the Wife of John Kington, of that Town, Farrier, was lately brought to bed of three Children, who were all born alive. About nine Months before, the was delivered of two.

Yesterday Morning John Parry and David Eden were executed at Tyburn pursuant to their Sentence. Parry behaved with great Decency that shewed he had a thorough Sense of his Crimes, and with a Refignation and Composure that testified a Hope of Mercy. When the Care was drawing off he expressed himself with great Fervency in the following Words: *O merciful God! save me now, or I perish eternally.'

A Vessel called the Swan of Uddevalla in Sweden, Andris Borgeson Isberg, Master, Burthen a-bout 40 Tons, laden with Deals, Iron, Pitch, and Tar, and ten Cases of Merchandize, configned to the Order of Thomas and Adrian Hope of Amsterdam, bound to Dunkirk, having on the 24th of May last sprung a Leak on the Northward of Dogger Bank, and the Water encreasing upon them un-til it was above the Cabin Deck, the Crew took to their Boat to fave their Lives, and got to Yarmouth, having while in Distress, thrown the ten Cases of Merchandize and some Iron over board. The Vessel has been since taken up at Sea, and brought into the Port at Yarmouth, where the now lies.

B O S T O N.

July 29. By Letters from Cathenoc, on Kennebec River, dated the 18th of this Instant, we are informed, that General Winslow had erected several Block Houses and Watch Boxes there: That they were bufy in building a Number of Battoes, which would be finished in two or three Days, and that upon the Arrival of Col. Fry, who was hourly expected with a Reinforcement of Men, and a good Quantity of Stores, the General intended to let out for Treconic with 500 Men; and a Fleet of 30 Boats, to build a strong Fort there: ___ That the Men were in good Health (notwithstanding their hard Service) not having so much as one fick among August 5. By Letters from Treconic, on Kennebec River, we are informed that General Win-flow was arrived there with a good Body of Troops, and that he was bufy in building a Fort: — That he had landed his Cannon, and having mounted them, fir'd them off, when his Majesty's Health was drank, a Number of the Norridgwalk Indians being prefent, who behave civilly, and feem to be well fatisfied with our Proceedings. That two of our Soldiers, an Irithman, and a New England Man had deferted, and were going towards Canada, but being met by some of the Norridgwalks, they brought the Fellows back, and deliver'd them to the General, and have promiled to do the like by any other Deferters they may meet with:

About ten Days ago, a Sloop bound to Connecticut.

Patterion Mafter, was call ashore near Marshfield, but the People and Cargo were savid, and its hoped the Vellel may be got off.

and 'the hop'd the Vellel may be got off.

Wadneday laft the Reverend Mr. Gleon Hawley was ordained in the Old South Meeting House, to the Work of the Ministry, more especially as a Missionary among the Mohawk Indiane, whose Languagette has learned, having been among them for upwards of Twelve Months past. 'Tin faid those Indians, especially the young Ones, are very docile, and defrous of being instructed in the Frinciples of the Christan Religion and Morality.' ciples of the Christan Religion and Morality.

Yefterday arriv'd here Capt. Cadiz, by whom we hear, that Treasure were arrived there fro of them a 70 Gun Ship, with was ever known, having on bo 70 or 80 Millions of Dollars.

PHILADELPH

We hear from Dover, that and Terminer lately held the ing found Guilty, he received Aug. 15. In January, 175 Traders, wiz. Alexander MC David Hendricks, and William trading on Kantucqui River, Party of French Indians, called lundered them of Goods to Hundred Pounds, and carrie where they were made Slav the Mayor of Albany with the by a Letter which he communi ment, Measures were taken to The Indians at first demande each of them, or as much one; but at length were previ missioners of Indian Affairs at tho' the whole paid them, mounted to Seventy two Penn Three Halfpenie, for the four has been repaid by this Pro-Indians it thems pretend not Col. Mynders Schupler, one o fioners for Indian Affairs, whiter with them, received latel from the Chief of that Nation (COPY LITE An Sault St. Loui E te prie, men Frere A faire Attention a tous ves n'est point eté satisfait du Prise a durange Lanné derniere. N tous le Jour qu'il ne sont poin Dagir, et qua lavenir ils nan vivans, puis quon ne leur ques aveir un petit Esclave ques avere un pesis Esclause. Frete, que je n'est pas eu que de notre Argent. Je charz Cemmission, il texpliquera mes ma Letre. Le moins qu'en Quatre Cent Livres. Faits qui ent ces sortes d'Asfaire quois je ne repon poin des Evince a la gravire le l'au me. river a lavenir lorsque me Prisonnier:

TRARSLATED INT Falls of St. I Pray thee, my Brother quaint the Gentlemen, initiated for the Priloners the at Albang laft Year. My y Day that they do not like that for the future they foners, fince they do not re them as will buy a lutle Brother, that I had only no ney. I charge Montandri who will explain my Senti delivers you this Letter. be paid for a Priloner is that have the Management give doe Attention to th answer for what may hap young Men make Prisone La Chief

Anagarondon, ii Cal

Anagarondon, ii Cal

About Twenty Pounce
By this infulting Letter this Province has note in whose we have never g Offence, we may fee the held by these Savages I w dering out People of the propose to make Slaves o or to have a Sara for ea Slave, otherwise the sining Trouble of fiving our Li to go on in this Manner, catching our People, and catching our People, an for 400 Livres per Head more to latisfy the Den Batharians, than would vince spaint all in Ruen