We hear from Dover, that at a Court of Oyer and Terminer lately held there, one Duffet was tried for the Murder of John Brown, of which he being found Guilty, he received Sentence of Death.

Aug. 15. In January, 1753, four of our Indian Traders, viz. Alexander McGenty, Jabez Evans, David Hendricks, and William Powell, were taken trading on Kanawqui River, near the Ohio, by a Party of French Indians, called Cagnacpaga's, who plundered them of Goods to the Value of several Hundred Pounds, and carried them to Canada; where they were made Slaves. But acquainting the Mayor of Albany with their miserable Situation, by a Letter which he communicated to this Government, Measures were taken to procure their Release. The Indians at first demanded a Negre Boy for each of them, or as much Money as would buy one; but at length were prevailed on by the Commissioners of Indian Affairs at Albany, to take less; tho' the whole paid them, with the Charges, amounting to Seventy-two Pounds, Five Shillings and Three Halfpence, for the four Prisoners, which Sum has been repaid by this Province. However, the Indians it seems pretend not to be satisfied; and Col. Myndert Schuyler, one of the Albany Commis- sioners for Indian Affairs, who transacted this Mat- ter with them, received lately the following Letter from the Chief of that Nation on the Subject, viz.

J E te prie, mon Frere Anagarondon, de faire faire Attention a tous vos Messieurs sur se que je n'est point ete satisfait du Prisonnier que je vous est ramy a Aurange Lanné derniere. Mes jeunes Gens me dise tous le Jour qu'il ne sont point contents de votre Faison Dagir, et qua lavenir ils nameneron plus les Hommes vivants, puis quon ne leur donne pas Seulement de quy avoir un petit Esclave Sauvage. Tu cest, mon Frere, que je n'est pas eu que quatrevingt dix Livres de notre Argent. Je charge Montandre de lete Commission, il texpliquera mes Sentimens en te remettant ma Lettre. Le moins qu'on paye un Prisonnier cest Quatre Cent Livres. Fais faire Attention a ceux qui ont ces sortes d'Affaires entre les mains, sans qu'ils ne repon point des Evtnement qui pourrois ar- river a lavenir lorsque mes jeunes Gens seron des Prisonniers.

Falls of St. Louis, June 14, 1754.

I Pray thee, my Brother Anagarondon, to acquaint the Gentlemen, that I have not been satisfied for the Prisoners that were delivered to you at Albany last Year. My young Men tell me every Day that they do not like your Management, and that for the future they will bring no living Prisoners, since they do not receive as much for one of them as will buy a little Slave. You know, my Brother, that I had only ninety Livres of our Money. I charge Montandre with this Commission, who will explain my Sentiments to you, when he delivers you this Letter. The least that ought to be paid for a Prisoner is 400 Livres. Let those that have the Management of these Sort of Affairs, give due Attention to this: Otherwise I will not answer for what may happen hereafter, when my young Men make Prisoners.

O'NONRAQUITE,

Anagarondon; is Col. Schuyler's Indian Name about Twenty Pounds Sterling.

By this insulting Letter from a People, with whom this Province has not had the least Difference, to whom we have never given the least Occasion of Offence, we may see the Contempt in which we are held by these Savages; who not content with plun- dering our People of their Goods with Impunity, propose to make Slaves of all of us they can catch, or to have a Sum for each sufficient to purchase a Slave, otherwise threatening they will not be at the Trouble of saving our Lives. If they are suffered to go on in this Manner, and to make a Trade of catching our People, and selling them to us, again for 400 Livres per Head, it may in time cost us more to satisfy the Demands of that handful of Barbarians, than would serve to defend the Pro- vince against all its Enemies.

Extract of a Letter from Barbados, dated July 19, 1754, relating to the Rebecca, Captain Leathem, lastly mentioned in this Paper to have been carried into Martinico, and condemn'd there.

I have only Time to acquaint you, that I shall sail for Martinico To-morrow, with proper Credentials to the General there; and Commodore Pye has faithfully promised, if I do not receive full Satisfaction for the Value of the Brigantine and Cargo, he will go down himself immediately on my Return, and use his Authority to have Justice done us."

Since the Reverend Mr. GEORGE WHITESHELD arriv'd here, he has preach'd almost every Evening in the New Presbyterian Church, and always to very crowded and polite Audiences. We hear he intends to set out for Boston on Tuesday next, and designs to preach at Neshaminy at Four that Afternoon; at Newtown on Wednesday, at Ten in the Morning, and at Trenton at Four in the Afternoon; at Maidenhead on Thursday, at Croswicks on Friday, and at Freshhold on Saturday, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning each Day; and on Sunday Morning and Evening at Brunswick.

Virginia, ff.

By the Honourable ROBERT DINWIDDIE, Esq; his Majesty's Lieutenant Governor, and Commander in Chief, of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia:

A PROCLAMATION,

For encouraging MEN to enlist in his Majesty's Services for the Defence and Security of this Colony.

WHEREAS it is determined that a Fort be immediately built on the River Ohio, at the Falls of Monongahela, to oppose any further Encroachments, or hostile Attempts of the French, and the Indians in their Interest, and for the Security and Protection of his Majesty's Subjects in this Colony; and as it is absolutely necessary that a sufficient Force should be raised to erect and support the same: For an Encouragement to all who shall voluntarily enter into the said Service, I do hereby notify and promise, by and with the Advice and Consent of his Majesty's Council of this Colony, that over and above their Pay, Two Hundred Thousand Acres, of his Majesty the King of Great Britain's Lands, on the East Side of the River Ohio, within this Dominion, (One Hundred Thou- sand Acres whereof to be contiguous to the said Fort, and the Other Hundred Thousand Acres to be scattered throughout the said Dominion) be on, or near the River Ohio) shall be laid off and granted to such Persons, who by their voluntary Engagement, and good Behaviour in the said Ser- vice, shall deserve the same. And I further pro- mise, that the said Lands shall be divided amongst them immediately after the Performance of the said Service, in a Proportion due to their respective Mer- it, as shall be represented to me by their Officers, and held and enjoyed by them without paying any Rights, and also free from the Payment of Quit- Rents, for the Term of Fifteen Years. And I do appoint this Proclamation to be read and published at the Court Houses, Churches, and Chapels in each County within this Colony, and that the Sheriffs take Care the same be done accordingly.

Given at the Council Chamber in Williamsburg, on the 19th Day of February, in the 27th Year of his Majesty's Reign, Annoque Domini 1754.

ROBERT DINWIDDIE.
