

Wimmarum, Capt. Philipp, and Root, and a Bark belonging to from Batavia to Surat, were attacked by Pirates Angria with a great bottomed Vessels, which beset them a Manner, that their great Guns useless. By this Means the Pilgrims Masters of the Peace and the former immediately took Fire, and the Edge. They now turned their against the Wimmarum, which them for four whole Hours, but powered. When 600 of the Pirates d, the Captain, a gallant Youth of ars of Age, went to the Powder epidly setting Fire to it, blew him-

November met with a violent Hurri-which three of his Men were wash'd lost, and himself was wash'd overboard, and the 5th Instant, in a about a Week ago the Wife of Sa-Jew, applied to one of the Magis-City for a Warrant to take up her reference that her Life was in Danger, by Evening he was apprehended and try Computer, and on Tuesday he was Sir Charles Asgill at Guildhall, life appeared, and the chief Article to allege against her Husband, was he had been married upwards of fourteen years, and still remained a pure Virgin; but inform'd her, that he had nothing to rimony Affairs, and discharged the "but Christian could bear this, with than this Jewish?"

Was a terrible Storm of Wind and rain in Kent, which did great Destruction to the Parish Church, and the Houses; a tree was blown down, and thirty large Trees were cut down.

1. We have Advice from Constantinople that a Fire broke out on the 21st of October a Fire broke out in the Grand Signior's Palace at Constantinople, spreading from
very fierce for above twelve Hours, which Space of Time upwards of three Houses were destroyed, including those which were blown down in order to stop the Progress of the Fire: The Damage occasioned by this Fire is estimated at about Two Millions of Letters from Constantinople advise that the Signior is taken ill; which cannot fail to Intrigue in the Seraglio, and augment the Confusion occasioned by the Lakes and Fires.

g to the Advices from Caffel, the Statesgrave were to meet the 17th Instant: 100 Years since they have been assembling in this Space of Time, they say, nothing important as the Affair which is to be the subject of their present Deliberations: The Statesgrave to maintain the Protestant Religion in the Province of Hesse Caffel; and the Statesgrave shall judge most conducive to this End, to be guaranteed by divers Princes of the Empire of whom already appear very firm Guarantees: So that the Protestants making another Electorate, to strengthen it in Germany, is in a fair Way of being

Nymph, M^cCowan, from New England, is ashore near Biddeford, the Vessel and Part of the Cargo will be saved.

12th Instant, the Elizabeth, Master John, and the Industry, Stebbing, from both for Liverpool, were drove ashore in the Isle of Man.

ly, Riddall, from Philadelphia for London, was driven into Ilfracomb with some Damage.

On Saturday last died at his Seat at Falmouth, the Right Hon. the Lord Vilford, who was descended from one of the most ancient Families in that County. He is succeeded in the Estate by the Hon. William Hall Gage, who was possessed, by his Father's Death, of a large entailed Estate; one of the Gages in Suffex, and the other in the County of Devon, in Right of his Mother, who was of the Family of the Halls, of Hill in that County.

Ship arrived at Falmouth we hear, that she was making in for that Port from Sea, and the melancholy Sight of two Ships in the Distance, supposed to be the Spence Frigate, and the Olive-Branch

Olive-Branch of Ramsgate, who both sunk in the Space of a few Minutes, and every Soul on board perished, without being able to give them the least Assistance, the Sea running so very high.

December 28. On Thursday an Express arriv'd from Paris, with an Account of the Death (by an Apoplectic Fit) of the Right Hon. William Anne Keppell, Earl of Albemarle, Viscount Bury, Baron Keppell, Earl of Alford, Groom of the Stole to his Majesty, Lieutenant General of his Majesty's Forces in Scotland, and Commander in Chief of the Forces in Scotland, and Colonel of the Second Regiment of Foot-Guards, Governor of Virginia, Knight of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, Great Master of the Noble Order of the Bath, Ambassador Extraordinary to the Court of France, and one of his Majesty's Privy Councillors. When the Mother of this Nobleman was waited upon by his eldest Son, Lord Viscount Bury, to acquaint her of the Earl's Death, she said, "You need not tell me that your Father is dead, for I dream'd it last Night."

Dec. 31. A Letter from Brest of the 30th ult. says, that a considerable Number of Forces, with warlike Stores, had sail'd for America about the Middle of that Month; and three Transport Ships were then taking in Stores for the same Quarter.

The late Winds and Tides have had such an Effect on the Banks at Romney Marsh, that the Consequences is much apprehended.

The Weather has been very stormy for some Time past in North and South Wales, attended with excessive heavy Rains, and the Floods were out so about Montgomery as to render travelling difficult and dangerous.

At Liverpool they have also had exceeding stormy Weather, and their Shipping were in imminent Danger.

January 4. The Death of the Earl of Albemarle is related as follows in the foreign Gazettes:

The 21st of December, as his Excellency was going Home about Half an Hour past Eleven at Night, he was seiz'd in his Coach with an Apoplectic Fit.
As soon as he reach'd his House, he was let Blood, and other proper Remedies were gives him. His Excellency continu'd very ill all Night; the next Morning (the 22d) he lost his Speech, and seem'd to be senseless till Six o'Clock in the Evening, when he expir'd. Some Hours after they open'd him, and as they found in his Stomach a Mushroom quite whole, it is not doubted but this indigestible Thing was the principal Cause of his Death.

The Hon. William Pitt, Esq; Paymaster General of his Majesty's Forces, has been pleas'd to appoint Abraham Mortier, Esq; and William Johnston, Esq; Deputy Paymasters of the Forces on the Expedition to North America.

William Lyttleton, Esq; Brother to the Hon. Sir George Lyttleton, Bart. and Member of Parliament for Bewdley in Worcestershire, is appointed Governor of South-Carolina, in the room of James Glen,
Esq;

Edinburgh, Dec. 17. The Cathcart, Buchanan, from Virginia for Grenock, is lost off of the Isle of Arran.
She went ashore Yesterday at night, about Four in the Morning, at Paddo, on the South End of the Isle. The Captain and Crew are sav'd, but the Ship and Cargo are entirely lost. They had four of their Hands wash'd overboard in their Passage.

Falmouth, December 24. The Loyd, Captain Wallace, from Liverpool for Virginia, was towed into this Harbour on Thursday the 19th, by the Robert and Anne, Capt. Hale, who met with her at Sea in great Distress. On Friday the 13th Instant at eight o'Clock in the Morning, about 60 Leagues to the Westward of Scilly, as she was lying to, a Sea broke over her, and carried away her Main-mast by the board, her Mizzen-mast and Fore-yard, her Binnacle, and at the same Time stove in her Upper Deck. She had fourteen Passengers on Board, one of whom happened to be upon Deck with two of the Seamen at the Time of the Accident.
They were all wash'd overboard, the Seamen recovered the Vessel, but the Passenger was lost.
Another Passenger who was lying in his Hammock at the same Time, was crushed to Death by the Deck, and jammed in, in such a Manner that there was no Way of getting him out but by cutting away the Plank.
And another that lay along-side of him was hurt in the Head greatly.
The Boy belonging to the Cabin was bruised terribly, but is very well recovered. One of her Pumps was carried away at the same Time; and what added to their Misfortune, was, she had eight Feet Water in her Hold; the Crew were greatly fatigued with Pumping and Belling, in Order to clear her. Her Cargo consisted of Fifty Ton of Salt and dry Goods. They saw one Vessel before this that towed her in, and made several Signals of Distress, but they did not come to their Assistance. I went to see her as she lay in our Pier, and think a more dismal Wreck was never seen, that reach'd any Harbour.

HALIFAX, January 4.
On Thursday last died here, Major Ezekiel Gilman, after about five Weeks Illness of the Dropfy. He was Captain of a Company of the New-England Forces at the Reduction of Louisburg, where he acquired great Esteem as a gallant Officer. [The Names of all these brave Heroes, ought to be band'd down to Posterity with Honour.]

WILLIAMSBURG.
February 21. On Monday the 13th of January, in Lat. 32 47 N. Long.
53. West from London, was met with, and spoke, the Granbam, of, and from New London, for Glasgow; who, in a violent Gale of Wind, on New-Year's Day, had the Misfortune to lose their Captain, one Miller, as also their Fore mast, Boat, Head, Windlass, Camboose, Companion, Quarter Pieces, &c. she was then command'd by the Mate, who was determined to bear away for the West Indies

Early last Wednesday Morning Mrs. Ann Pattison, of this City, was burnt to Death in a most miserable Manner; it is supposed she was much in Liquor, and the Fire catching hold of her Cloaths she had not Power to extinguish it. The Coroner's Inquest brought in their Verdict, Accidental Death.

February 28. The Three Ships of War arriv'd at Hampton, are the Centurion, Commodore Keppel, the Norwich, the Honourable Capt. Barrington, and the Syrin, Capt. Proby; in the Norwich came Passengers, the Honourable Major General Edward Braddock, Commander of all the Forces in North-America; Capt. Orme, Aid de Camp, and Mr. Shirley, Secretary, who came to this City last Sunday, where they wait the Arrival of the Forces, who are every Day expected.

From Hampton we are advised that two French Men of War have lately been seen off our Coast; and it is said that the Garland, Capt. Arbuthnot, and the Gibraltar, Capt.
Stry, are ordered out in Search of them.

ANNAPOLIS.
The Honourable GEORGE
PLATER, Esq; is appointed Secretary of this Province, in the Room of the Honourable EDMUND JENINGS, Esq; now in England, who has resign'd.
And, The Honourable
WILLIAM GOLDSBOROUGH, Esq; is appointed and sworn one of his Lordship's Honourable Council of State in this Province.

We are inform'd by Mr.
Middleton, who came in this Morning from Virginia, that the Fleet from Ireland with the Forces, are all arriv'd except the Severn, Capt.
Rawlings, who had been spoke with, and was every Day expected. They had 7 and 8 Weeks Passage from Cork, and are arriv'd in good Health; the two Regiments will be complete 700 each, when Rawlings arrives.

Last Thursday, at our County Court, a Negro Fellow was convicted of murdering his Overseer, one Price, a few Weeks ago, in the lower Part of this County.

At the same Court one Edward Vinn, was convicted of stealing a Grind-Stone, for which he stood in the Pillory, and receiv'd 30 Lashes at the Whipping Post well laid on, which convinc'd him of his having had a hard Bargain. And, Penelope Houfe, was twice whipp'd, and twice stood in the Pillory, for Shop-lifting.

Yesterday arriv'd here from Bristol, the Betsey, Capt. Edward
Scott, with 51
Indented Servants.
Capt. Henry Carroll, in a Ship of Mr.
Perkins's, is arriv'd in Patuxent, from London.

TEN PISTOLS REWARD.

Kent County, Maryland,
March 19, 1755.

WHEREAS there were several Advertisements, (some of which were printed, and others of the same Signification written), dispers'd through this Province, describing, and offering a Reward of Two Pistoles, &c. for taking up a Servant Man, named James
Francis, and a Mulatto Man Slave call'd
Toby, both belonging to the Subscriber, and ran away on the 11th Instant: And whereas it has been discover'd since the Publishing of the said Advertisements, that they carried with them many more Things than is therein described,
I do hereby again and farther give Notice, that the white Man, James Francis, is aged about 21 Years, his Stature near five Feet and an half, slender bodied, with a smooth Face, almost beardless, born in England, and bred a Farmer.
The Mulatto is a lusty, well-set Country born Slave, with a great Nose, wide Nostrils,
full mouth'd,
many Pimples
in his Face, very slow in Speech, he is a tolerable good Cooper and House-Carpenter, and no doubt will endeavour to pass for a Free-Man: Each hath a Felt Hat, Country
Cloth Velt and Breeches, and Yarn Stockings;
one of them has a light colour'd loose Coat of Whitney or Duffel: The white Man a dark close bodied Coat, a striped short Velt of Beverlasing, another of blue Fear-nothing, with other Cloaths.
The Slave has also many other more valuable Garments; they took with them likewise a Gun, Powder and Shot, and are suppos'd either to cross the Bay in a Pettyauger.

Whoever brings the said Servant and Slave to the Subscriber, on the Mouth of Chester River, or to Thomas Ringgold at Chester-Town, shall have for a Reward Ten Pistoles, and all reasonable Charges in taking and securing the said Servant
and Slave, paid by James Ringgold.

THAT this Slave shou'd run away and attempt getting his Liberty, it very alarming, as he has been always too kindly us'd, if any Thing, by his Master, and one in whom his Master has put great Confidence, and depended on him to overlook the rest of his Slaves, and he had no kind of Provocation to go off. It seems to be the Interest, at least of every Gentleman that has Slaves, to be active in the beginning of these Attempts, for whilst we have the French
such near Neighbours, we shall not have the least Security in that kind of Property.
I should be greatly obliged to any Gentleman
that shall hear of these Fellows, to endeavour to get certain Intelligence which Way they have taken, and to inform me of it by Express, and also to employ some active Person or Persons immediately to take their Track
and pursue them and secure
them, and I will thankfully acknowledge
Favour,
immediately
answer
Expence attending it.

Thomas Ringgold.
