ses shot under him, and his

Places.
Fr. Halkett, Esq; Maj. Brig.

Preston,
Dobson,
Morris,

By Letters in Town we understand, that Col. Dunbar, with the Remainder of the two Regiments, and three Independent Companies, under his Command, were to march from Fort-Cumberland on Tuesday last for Ray's-Town in Pennsylvania. The same Letters mention the Arrival of one Sicut at Fort-Cumberland, who gave them the following Accounts: That about the Middle of June last, he and his Family were carried off from the Back Parts of this Province, by a Party of Indians, to Fort Duquesne; that when he came thither the French had not above 400 Men in the Fort; that on the 2d of July, about 1100 French, and 1300 Indians, came down the Ohio, and in a few Days afterwards several other large Parties of both French and Indians arrived also from other Parts: That a small Party of French, with about 2000 Indians, were soon after sent out to harass our Army on their March, who understanding the Rout the General had taken, determined to have disputed his Passage over the Monongahela, but coming too late for that Purpose, found him entered into the Valley where the Action happened: That after the Engagement the Indians pursued our People to the Monongahela, scalp'd and plunder'd all that were left upon the Field, except five or six, who not being able to keep pace with the Victors in their Return to the Fort, were all treated in the same Manner, one Virginian only surviving it. [Oh! horrid Barbarity! to kill in cool Blood! But, Protestant Reader, such is the Treatment we may expect to receive from his MOST CHRISTIAN Majesty's American Allies, if ever we should be so unhappy as to fall into their Hands, except we give up our Religion, Liberty, and every Thing that is dear and valuable, and submit to his Vassals, and Dupes to the Romish Clergy, whose most tender Mercies are but hellish Cruelties, whenever they have Power to exercise them.]

He further says, that the same Day of the Attack, all the Artillery, &c. was carried into the Fort, and the Plunder distributed amongst the Indians; a great Number of whom, the second Day afterwards, took their Leave and set out for Canada, carrying this Sicut with them a Prisoner, who the first Night afterwards made his Escape from them, and with much Difficulty, arrived at Fort-Cumberland, almost famish'd. He says the French have now about 3000 Men at the Fort. This Day arrived in West-River, Capt. Hanrick, in the Groo, belonging to Mr. Galloway, from Ireland, but last from Gibraltar, which he left the 17th of June, and informs us, that no War was then declared there, nor much said about it. Two Days before he left Gibraltar, at two o'Clock in the Morning, a Sergeant, Corporal, Centinel, and 14 other Men, being on the Middle Hill Guard, the 14 Men (six of whom belong'd to the late General Braddock's Regiment), agreed to desert, and seiz'd and bound the Sergeant, Corporal and Centinel, and intended to lower themselves down and go to the Spaniards, having 18 Charges a Piece; but the Sergeant rolling himself to the Corporal, he untied his Hands with his Teeth, and then he releas'd the other two, who fired the Alarm, and immediately the whole Garrison was alarmed, the 14 Men taken, tried, condemned, and shot, the same Day.

At a Muster last Week, in Cecil Conty, one of the Men, a careless Fellow, at the Word Fire, discharged his Piece loaded with large Shot, right into another Man's Face, and wounded him so that his Life was despaired of. His Excellency our Governor, with a Body of Men, is now in the Western Parts of this Province.
