Had on when he went away, a Thunder and Lightning Coat, wears a Wig, and speaks good English.

He carried away with him a Servant Woman, of a small Stature, and much Pock-fretten.

RAN away last Night from the Baltimore Iron Works, on Patapsco, in Maryland, a Conyict Servant Man, named William Cowling, about 30 Years of Age, he has been in the Country about 14 Months, is a luffy well-set Fellow, born in the West of England, and speaks broad, was bred to Farming, and understands driving a Team of Horses; he is of a brown Complexion, has short light brown Hair, a red Beard, is about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and has a lubberly Walk. Had on when he went away, an old Felt Hat, a brown half-worn Kersey Coat, without Lining, trimm'd with flat white Metal Buttons, two Osnabrigs Shirts, Crocus Trowsers, and Country Shoes iron'd round the Heels. TO BE SOLD,

For Sterling Money, good Bills of Exchange, or Paper Currency.

A TRACT of LAND, called his Lordship's Gift, lying on the Head of Bush River, in Baltimore County, containing 1193 Acres. BASIL BROOKE.

THE Public are caution'd to be aware of some counterfeit Bills, in Imitation of the Twenty Shilling Bill of this Province, as some of them may possibly be now passing. They differ from the true Bill in the Coat of Arms, the false ones being much coarser in the Strokes, than the true Bills; and the Motto in the false Bills being hardly intelligible; the Boots on the Fisherman in the Arms of the false Bill appear much whiter than in the true; the shading Strokes being much more distant from one another than in the true Bill; the Letters in general thro' the false Bill appear larger and coarser than in the true Bill; the Letter Y, in the Word TWENTY at Top, in the false Bill, is shallower in the opening, and longer in the lower Part, than in the true Bill; and there appears more white in all the Letters in the Word TWENTY, in the false Bill, than in the true; the Altering after XX, at the Bottom, is much larger than in the true Bill; the Signers Names are done pretty well; the Paper of the false Bills is thicker and coarser than the True; and the Word MARYLAND at the Bottom of the Bill, is mark'd on the Back, instead of being stamp'd in the Paper as all the true Bills are.
