MAK

The humble ADDRESS of the Honourable the LORDS SEVEN in PARLIAMENT assembled

Die Jovis, 13mo Nov

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, and temporal Nobles assembled, humbly return your

Thanks for your most gracious Throne.

Your Majesty's paternal Kindness and Prosperity of your People, conspicuous on all Occasions of Conjunction, being demonstrated by your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve the Liberties of War, and by your Majesty's not yielding to any Terms that were not reasonable and just.

When we consider the high and British Possessions and Rights of Commerce and Well-being, we cannot but reflect with a just and reasonable Repentment, that, in a Time so contrary to the Faith of the Treaty, so many Encroachments should be committed on the Part of France, and our Surprise at such a Conduct, and our Gratitude to your Majesty, for your Royal Care to prevent such Invasions and Encroachments, which have been made.

If any Power could be so bold as to imagine that your Majesty, would remain unactive Spectator, provoked Hostilities, they may have been convinced of their Error. We thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in your Majesty's time Armaments with so great Expedition, and in augmenting your Majesty's strength with so much Regard to the Liberty which you were providing for your Majesty's Subjects, in having, at the same Time, your Majesty's Encouragement to that great and your Majesty's brave and faithful your Majesty's American Provinces, to exert their Strength on this important their Duty, Interest, and common and strongly call upon the your Majesty's Motives of Ambition, or of Power, have been the Ground of your Prudence and Magnanimity, manifested to all the World, by your Majesty's Operations to those salutary Operations, which your Majesty has been pleased to declare to us.

It is with Pleasure we observe the Operations of his Catholic Majesty, who is able to the Amity and good Understanding between the two Crowns, and the Welfare of Europe.

We should fall short of our Duty to your Majesty and our Country, with the greatest Sincerity, promise your Majesty, that we will be vigorous Concurrance and Assistance in your Majesty's Affairs, and national Cause. Nothing on our Part, to make sure that your Majesty's Operations, which were given to your Majesty's Interest in their last Session, shall be as obliged by the same Gratitude, and Honour, to your Majesty in all such Wars.
