The humble ADDRESS of the honourable the LORDS SECRITARYS in PARLIAMENT assembled

Die Jovis, 13mo Nov

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, and temporary Assembled, humbly

Thanks for your most gracious Throne.

Your Majesty's paternal Love and Prosperity of your People, conspicuous on all Occasions of Conjunction, being demonstration of your Majesty's earnest Desire to preserve the Liberties of War, and by your Majesty's not yielding to any Terms that were not reasonable and just.

When we consider the high British Possessions and Rights of Commerce and Well-being we cannot but reflect with Resentment, that, in a Time contrary to the Faith of the so many Encroachments submitted on the Part of France, we cannot but reflect with Gratitude to your Majesty, for your Royal Care to prevent such Invasions and Encroachments, which have been made.

If any Power could be so imagined that your Majesty, would remain unactive Spectator, provoked Hostilities, they have been convinced of their Error.

We thankfully acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in the time Armaments with so great Expedition, and in augmenting with so much Regard to the Whilft you were providing in having, at the same Time Encouragement to those great and faithful your American Provinces, to exert their Strength on this their Duty, Interest, and comfort, and strongly call upon the

Your Majesty has sufficient Motives of Ambition, or of Ambition, have been the Ground of your Prudence and Magnanimity, offered to all the World, by your Majesty's Prudence and Magnanimity, on to prevent a general War in Europe, and by continuing your Operations to those salutary which your Majesty has been to declare to us.

It is with Pleasure we observe the Motions of his Catholic Majesty, able to the Amity and good understanding between the two Crowns, and the Welfare of Europe.

We should fall short of our duty to your Majesty and our Country, with the greatest Sincerity, promise your Majesty vigorous Concurrence and assistance, and national Cause. Nothing on our Part, to make sure that which were given to your Majesty, which were given to your Majesty, themselves as obliged by the first Gratitude, and Honour, to your Majesty in all such
