

St. CHRISTOPHER'S, January 30.
 Capt. Falkingham, in the Tryal Sloop of War, has sent in here one large Bermuda Sloop loaded with Sugar, Mellasses, Cocoa and Coffee; and two Schooners deeply loaded with the same Commodities; and one Schooner with Beef, Butter, Mackerel and dry Goods; all which were taken to the Southward of St. Kitt's the 28th and 29th Instant. The Tryal sails again To-Morrow, on a Cruise.

PHILADELPHIA, March 11.
 In a Letter from Juniata, in Cumberland County, dated the 24th of last Month, there is Advice, that Captain Patterton being out with a Scouting Party, in order to scour the Woods as far as Shamokin, on the 20th of that Month fell in with some Indians at Middle-Creek, one of which they killed and scalped, put the rest to Flight, and took three of their Horses: That one of Captain Patterton's Men was wounded: That the Woods from Juniata to Shamokin, are full of Indians, seeking for Plunder and Scalps: That they found many Houses burnt, and some burning; and that it was feared but few in a short Time would be standing, and that all the Grain would be destroyed.

We hear from Berks County, that on Saturday Evening last the House and Barn of Barnabas Siddle, and the Mill of Peter Conrad, were burnt down, and the Wife of Balfar Neyfong killed, and his Son, a Child of eight Years old, taken Captive, by three Indians; and that next Morning Siddle's Servant informed Captain Morgan of the Mischief done at his Master's Plantation, whereupon he, with seven of his Men, immediately went in Search of the Enemy, but did not meet with any: And that on his Return he overtook one David Howell in his Way to the Fort, who informed him, that three Indians had fired five times at him, and the last time shot him through his Arm.

We hear further, from the same County, that six of the Regulars quartered at Reading have deserted, and that two, who some time since deserted from Easton, and were taken and put into Reading Goal, made their Escape last Week over the Prison Wall.

The following Account of Mischief done by the Indians at the Plantation of Phillip Buffart, in Northampton County, on the other Side of the Blue Mountains, between Fort Norris and Fort Hamilton, was sent in a Letter from Mr. J. Matthew Otto to a Gentleman at Bethlehem, dated March 5, viz. That on the first Instant one Muhlhau, who was breaking Flax there, was shot through the Body, and the Wound thought to be mortal: That a Boy of George Minier's was standing at the Door, and received a Shot in the Breast, upon which he went into the House to get his Gun, and as he was cocking it fell down dead: That then Buffart's Son ran out of the House, when he was shot in several Places, and died soon after: That Buffart himself, and an Indian, fired at one another, when he was wounded in the Arm, and the Indian shot in the Back, who ran off, making an howling Noise: And that some of Buffart's Neighbours, who came to his Assistance, heard a Groaning at a Distance, thought to be that of two wounded Indians; that they saw five Indians; and that in the Beginning there were eight of them seen.
