

NEW-YORK, March 29.
 About two Weeks ago the Barn of one Bestfall, at Minisink, was burnt by the Indians, with 24 Cows, 9 Horses, and about 400 Bushels of Wheat. Extract of a Letter from Madeira, dated January 25, 1756.

....." I think we have had only three English Vessels here since you left us, which is something extraordinary at this Season of the Year: We judge they are staying for Convoy, as well as the East-India Men, which in one Respect has happened well, as our Wines are selling cheaper than last Year.-----Yesterday arrived a Ship from Gibraltar, the Captain of which reports, that Letters of the 19th of December were received there from London; that Preparations for War continued as before; but that the Parliament would determine nothing till after Christmas; and that there were in Gibraltar Twenty-five Sail of French Prizes."

Last Week Mr. Sullivan, alias Johnson, the famous Money-maker, was brought to Town, and committed to our Goal: He was detected and taken in Dutchess County, in this Government, by the extraordinary Address and Resolution of Cornet Eliphalet Beecher.
