HAGUE, June 21.

THE following Letter, wrote Colonel Napier to General Bragg and published by the French is very remarkable, if considered as a Proof of the excellent Skill of the Prince by whom it was dictated.

SIR, HIS Royal Highness the Duke, in the Audiences he has given you, entered particular Explanation of every Part of the Rule for the Execution of his Majesty's Orders, he last Saturday communicated to your own Ideas concerning this Affair, and were desirous of forgetting no Part thereof, ordered me to deliver them to you in His Royal Highness's Service very much at Heart, as it is of the highest Importance to His Majesty's American Dominions, and to the Royal Highness takes likewise a particular in it as it concerns you, whom he recom-mands to his Majesty to be nominated to the Chief mand. His Royal Highness's Opinion is that immediately after your landing, you consider what mery and other Implements of War it will be necessary to transport to Willeferale for your Operation on the Ohio, that it may not fail the Service; and that you form a second Train, with good Officers and Soldiers, shall be sent to Albania, and be ready to take for the second Operation to Niagara. You take under your Command as many as you necessary of the two Companies of Artillery are in Nova-Scotia and Newfoundland, as the Season will allow, taking Care to leave to defend the Island.

When Shirley's and Peppercell's Regiment near compleat, his Royal Highness thinks you cause them to encamp, not only that they the speedier disciplined, but also to draw the French, and keep them in Submission about the Place you really design to attack.

The most strict Discipline is always necessary, but more particularly so in the Service engaged in. Wherefore his Royal Highness commands you that it be constantly observed among the Troops under your Command, to be particularly careful that they be not thro' to a Panic by the Savages, from seizing whom they are yet unacquainted, and who French will certainly employ to frighten His Royal Highness recommends to you that your other Officers be careful to do it, and you yourself frequently set them the Example give all your Troops plainly to understand no Excuse will be admitted for any Surprize soever.

Should the Ohio Expedition continue considerable Time, and Shirley's and Peppercell's Regiments be found enough to undertake mean while the Reduction of Niagara, His Royal Highness would have you consider where you could go there in Person, leaving the Command of the Troops on the Ohio to some Officer you might depend, unless you shall think for the Service to send those Troops for whom you had designed to command on the Ohio, but this is a nice Affair, and claims your Attention. If after the Ohio Expedition it should be necessary for you to go with your Force to Niagara, it is the Opinion of His Royal Highness that you should carefully endeavour out a shorter Way from the Ohio thither, of the Lakes; which, however, you are tempt under any Pretence soever, without Certainty of being supplied with Provi-
