THE Subscriber having by a great Application acquired a reasonable Knowledge of the ENGLISH GRAMMAR, he proposes to Teach the same at the FREE SCHOOL of Annapolis. Those Parents who cannot afford their Sons spending several Years in the learning of Greek and Latin, may, by this Proposal, procure to them the only Benefit commonly expected from these Languages, THE LEARNING OF THEIR OWN: Besides, their Daughters can as easily enjoy the same Advantage. As he does not take upon himself to Teach English Pronunciation (which will be Taught, as usual, by Mr. Wilmot) he hopes no judicious Person will make any Objection to his being a Foreigner; and that, as his Proposal is of a self-evident Advantage to Youth, he will meet with good Encouragement. His Terms are very moderate, being only Thirty Shillings, additionally to what is allowed to Mr. Wilmot.

WILLIAM CLAJON.

N. B. This will make no Alteration to the Price given me for Teaching French, Latin and Greek.

HAGUE, Marib 3.

COUNT d'Affry, Minister Plenipotent from France, in Obedience to his Majesty's Order, has had a solemn Conference with Deputies of the States-General, to whom he presented the following Memorial:

High and Mighty Lords,

THE King, my Master, exclusive of the defensive Engagements which he has contracted with the Emperor and Queen, by Virtue of the Treaty of Versailles, of the first of May last, bound as Guaranty of the Peace of Westphalia and of the Germanic Constitution and Liberties to assist those Princes, who, being unjustly oppressed or threatened with approaching Oppression, require the Performance of such Guaranty.

"In Consequence of the Request made by several States of the Empire, his Majesty intended to assemble, on the Lower Rhine, an Army of less numerous, and to act in one Body, to be divided into several Corps, as the Situation and Interest of his Allies may require.

"The King having in View the Safety and Tranquillity of his Friends and Neighbours, fires nothing more sincerely, than to contribute to re-establish Peace, as soon as possible, upon equitable Terms. His Majesty's Troops begin their March from the 14th, to the 30th of March, to encamp between the Rhine and Maese, near Dusseldorp. Great Care will be taken to prevent giving any just Cause of Complaint to any Power whatsoever, but more especially the States-General.

"The King depending upon their High Mightinesses inviolable Observance of the Treaty of Neutrality they have entered into, will, on all Occasions, continue to give them the clearest Proofs how much he has their Professions at Heart.

"The King's Troops, so far from undertaking any Thing which can cause any Uneasiness to the High Mightinesses, will act in their Defence, for their Protection, in Case that in Consequence of their Neutrality, any Attempts should be made upon their Tranquillity, Liberty, or Commerce.

"The King, my Master, will voluntarily communicate to the States-General, such further Solutions as he shall determine, in Pursuance of his Foresight and Engagements, as Circumstances may require.

"His Majesty expects, from the Equity and Friendship of their High Mightinesses, that they will not listen to any false Insinuations that may be made Use of, to impose upon them, and that they will place an entire Confidence in the Honours given them by his Majesty of the Sincere and evident Sentiments of the Esteem and Affection he has for their Republic.

THE State and Condition of Germany is now a Subject very much enquired into. I shall give our Readers the following Account of the Revenues of the several Princes and States of that Empire, with the Number of Forces each of them can raise; first observing, that the Calculations of their annual Revenues were made in German Florins, which were supposed to be worth Three Shillings and Four-pence Sterling each, that the King of Prussia, and some others, were supposed to have large Subsidies from France, England, or Holland.
