H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.

From a late NEW UNIVERSAL MAGAZINE SKETCH of an ACT for the Defence of BRITISH Colonies in NORTH-AMERICA.

WHEREAS the present Exigence requires the strictest Union between the several British Colonies in North-America for their common Defence, Be it enacted, That the Governors, Councils, General Assemblies, and all other Persons within those Colonies, shall, the Space of — Years from the Time of passing this Act, be in all Things subject to the Orders of one Captain and Governor-General, to be commissioned by his Majesty in Council; and under the Penalty of forfeiting their Government Offices, Places, Privileges, and Charters, during his Majesty's Pleasure.

And whereas the present Necessity of raising a sufficient Army for the Defence of the said Colonies is so very Urgent, as not to admit of Time for the Calling their several Assemblies, and their agreeing among themselves upon the respective Quotas and Proportions of Men and Monies necessary towards the said Armament, Be it further enacted, That the Colony commonly called — shall forthwith raise, and compleatly furnish with all necessary Arms, Stores, Ammunitions, Provisions, and Artillery, a Body of — Men, Officers included; the Colony commonly called — a Body of —, [and so on for each Colony] making in the Whole an Army of — Thousand Men, to be under the Command and Direction of the said Captain, and Governor-General, according to Law, Custom, Charter, or Privilege, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Provided nevertheless, That if the Regulation above recited shall, upon humble Representation made to his Majesty in Council, be made applicable to be in any Respect grievous or unequal with regard to any of the said Colonies, it shall be lawful for his Majesty to order such Alterations to be made therein as to his Majesty shall seem meet: Provided that till his Majesty shall direct any Alteration, the said Regulation be complied with even by such Colony as may think itself aggrieved. Provided also, That over and above the respective Quotas of Men and Monies to be raised, the Virtue of this Act for a general and principal Army, it shall be lawful for all the said Colonies to raise whatever Men and Money they shall judge necessary for the Defence and Safety of such Colony, to be entirely at the Disposal of the respective Governments of such Colony, any Thing in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding. This Act to be in Force — Years, and to continue to the End of the next Session of Parliament.

Miscellaneous Observations, by GEORGE SAVILE, Marquis of HALIFAX.

TO Love, and to be in Love with any Thing, are Things as differing, as good Sense and Impertinence. When we once go beyond Liking, we are in Danger of parting with good Sense; and it is not easy for good Sense to go far as Liking. When by Habit a Man cometh to have a gazing Soul, its Wings are cut, so that it can no longer fly. It bindeth Reason an Apprentice to Grief, and instead of a Director, maketh it a Drudge. The being kind to a Liar, is abetting a Thief against Mankind. A Man is to inform his first Magistrate, that he may be clapp'd up. Men are embroidered with Promises and Excuses. A known Liar should be Out-lawed in a well-ordered Government. A Man that renounceth Truth, runneth away from his Trial in the World. Use of Talking is almost lost in the World by
