H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.

MARYLAND Containing

From the GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE, for April

MUCH has been said of the partial Bias of the Spaniards, in Behalf of French, during the Course of the present War, a recent Instance of the Seizure and Detention of Antigallican's Prize in the Port of Cadiz; has been brought as a Proof of that Partiality. As that fair has become National, and has made some Noise abroad, an authentic Account of the Whole, from Captain's Journal, may perhaps be acceptable to the Public, and is as follows:

ON December 26, cruising off the Coast of Galicia in Spain, at six in the Morning discovered a Sail standing in; gave Chase under Spanish Colours, being but little Wind, we rowed, by that Means gained on the Chase; at twelve within Gun Shot; she gave us a Gun, upon which we then down Spanish Colours and up English. She then gave us a Broad-side, and killed three Men: We did not return a Gun 'til we run close along Side, and engaged her 'til Three, when she struck. We found her to be the Duke de Etracere.

January 6, 1757. At Eleven this Morning the Rock we took in Pilots for Lisbon, and within the Harbour's Mouth, but a strong Gale coming on, split the Prize's Main-top Sail, drove her out to Sea. We followed her out, sent our small Boat aboard her with small Sail the Boat in returning with two Men was taken from that Time to the 22d we were beating Windward, endeavouring to make Lisbon, could not; therefore relolved to bear away Cadiz, it being the first Port we could make; Distress being so great, the Prize not steering, her Sails in Pieces, and our Ships so leaky the Pump was almost constantly going, our Boat almost expended, and not above Ten Days Provisions left; besides receiving Advice by the Albat's Man of War, of five Sail of French Men of War to Convoy their Indianen home: these Reasons we went to Cadiz.

January 23, We arrived at Cadiz, but were obliged to perform Quarantine for three Days. On the 27th, the Consul, Vice-Consul, and Clerk came on board, and took the French Officers Depositions, who wrote them themselves in the French Language, who, among other Things, voluntarily declared upon Oath, when they engaged us, they were distant from the Light-House of Corunna between two and three Leagues; that they did not see any Fort or Land, or hear any Guns fired.

On February 11th, we had Leave from Admiral Navarro for our Ship to go to the Carracas, as she was refitted at the King's Dock: The Prize remained in Cadiz Bay safely moored, with some of our own Officers and Crew, 'til her Condemnation arrived from Gibraltar.

On the 19th, the Governor sent for the Consul and told him he was obliged to send Troops on board the Prize, having received Orders from Court to detain her. The Consul (Mr. Goldsmith) protested against it in the strongest Manner as it was contrary to our Treaties, and an Violation of the Laws of Nations. The Governor ordered all the Artillery on the Walls to be loaded, Gunners with their Matches lighted, Companies of Grenadiers ordered to be ready with nineteen Rounds of Shot, two Companies of Foot in Possession of the Prize, seized our Arms, Munitions, &c. two other Companies marched to the Ports, and the other two marched on board the Antigallican at the Carracas, which laid like a Hulk, for the Guns, Arms, Sails, Masts, were in the King's Warehouse. In the Evening the Governor being conscious of the Illegality of such Proceedings, sent Orders to withdraw
