CLAMATION.

S our ALMIGHTY CREATOR, awaken in us, his finful Creaof our Relation to, and Depenoes often, from his tender Mercy Warning of his Displeasure at and Wickedness, that, by a nd Reformation of our Manners, and a close and strict Obedience to his Laws, and Observance of his Holy Will, for the future, we may avoid that Vengeance, and difarin that Juffice, too strictly due to the Number and Weight of our Offences: And whereas fuch a Duty feems, at present, to be required of us, as our Mother-Country is involved in a calamitous War, and we are now in Danger of losing both our Religion and Liberties, by the Attacks of a perfidious, mer-

ciles, and savage Enemy:
I have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of his Lordship's Council of State, to appoint FRI-DAY the Twelfth Day of August next, to be set apart and observed throughout this Province as a Day of a General and Public FAST, HUMI-LIATION, and PRAYER, to the DIVING MAJESTY, to avert those Judgments, we, from our Offences against him, have most justly deserved, to continue his Mercies, to perpetuate the Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties amongst us, to secure the Happiness and Prosperity of our most Gracious Sovereign, our Mother-Country, and all her Colonies; and to implore the Almighty Protection and Bleffing upon the Fleets and Armies employed in her and our Service, especially those in the Expedition under the Right Honoura ble the Earl of LOUDOUN. And I do here: by recommend to the feveral Ministers of the Gosrel within this Province, to compose Prayers and Sermons adapted to the Occasion, to be used on that Day in their respective Churches: And that they Publish this my Proclamation in their several Congregations immediately after Divine Service, on the Sunday next preceding that Day. And I do hereby strictly charge and require the feveral Sheriffs of this Province, to make this my Procla-
