THE Subscriber purposing for LONDON this Fall, to supply himself with WORKMEN and STAY-GOODS, gives Notice to all his old Customers and Others, that they may, on his Return (which he intends shall be as early as possible next Spring), be furnished with STAYS, made in the neatest Manner and of the newest Fashions, or as they shall be pleased to direct, with the greatest Expedition, upon their favouring him with their Commands as usual. And as it is necessary that he should collect his Debts (many of which have been long due), before he goes, for the carrying on his Trade in the Manner he proposes, and discharging all Claims against him, he desires all those who are indebted to him, to make immediate Payment; and hopes that this will be looked on by them, as the last Request which he intends to make in this Manner.

WANTS EMPLOYMENT, A YOUNG MAN of a fair Character, who has been brought up in the Mercantile Way, and has officiated about three Years in a Public Office in this Province, would be willing to serve as a Store-Keeper or Clerk: Any Gentleman who is in Want of such a Person, may hear of him by applying to Mr. Laurens Jacquet, Merchant, in Annapolis.

H. CALLISTER, Agent for FOSTER CUNLIFFE and SONS, Esqrs. desires all Debtors to their Concern, at Oxford, to make Payment in Cash or Tobacco, or in Wheat so long as he is willing to take it; and those who are not able to make immediate Payment, are desired to come and settle.

As he is conscious of having hitherto treated his Debtors with exemplary Lenity, notwithstanding the malicious Aspersions on his Character by a Set of abandon'd and ungrateful Wretches, whose desperate Circumstances constrain'd him to take the Steps necessary to secure the Interest he has Charge of, and such Aspersions have been with more Ill-Nature fomented by others: As it must be evident to all dispassionate and discerning honest Men, that he has hitherto adhered to the strictest Rules of Humanity in collecting the Debts due to his Constituents, and given their Debtors the fairest and happiest Alternative in the Method of Payments that the Heart of an honest Man can desire, and which they cannot with Justice claim, having constantly given higher Prices to his Debtors than he could purchase for of others, and taking a losing Commodity; he is still Consistent, and will have all the Patience a reasonable Man can wish, on taking Bonds, or good Surety, where the Circumstances of the Debtor appear to him precarious. This he is induced to from the Consideration of the present Times bearing hard on many, and purely for their own Sakes, for he has had his Patience already tried and abused, and does not think himself obliged to suspend the Rigour of Justice. This, it is hoped, People will reflect upon, and alter their Conduct with regard to him.

He has still on Hand, a considerable Quantity of European and West-India GOODS, both old and fresh, which he will sell cheap for ready Tobacco, Cash, or Wheat.

June 9, 1757.

ALL Persons indebted to the PAPER CURRENCY OFFICE, are required to pay the INTEREST due on their BONDS within Six Months from the Date hereof, otherwise the Bonds will be put in Suit.

Signed per Order of the Commissioners, of the Paper Currency Office.

RICHARD DORSEY, Clerk

[PRAGUE, the Capital of Bohemia, is, according to Mr. Salmon's Account, the largest City in Europe; and the most populous, next to London, Paris and Constantinople; encompassed with Wall, Bastions, and other Works, which render it as strong as a Place of that Extent can be, but it is commanded by several Hills: It is pleasantly, surrounded by fine Fields and Gardens, and is adorned with a great many elegant Churches and Convents. There are scarce Cities that have more Nobility and wealth, People residing in them; and these are extremely polite and civil to Strangers; at least it was a few Years ago, before the City was sacked by the French and Prussians.]

The Sandburn (a Tender) William Peavy Commander, from Pole Davy Bay, about six Days from Brest, gives the following Account, That on the 23d ult. sailed three Ships of the Line, and a Frigate, as said, to join four other Ships of the Line, and 22 Ships for the East-India; and that last Tuesday sailed 19 Ships of the Line, with Troops on board, supposed for America. And this the Remainder of the Battalion is expected here to take the same Route.
