NOTWITHSTANDING the Proposals made from Time to Time, since March last, in this GAZETTE, and the Steps which plainly appear I have taken for the Security and Benefit of my Creditors, yet some there are who strenuously insist on all, or none. As the latter would be equally disagreeable to me, as disadvantageous to my Creditors, am ready to do every Thing in my Power to comply with the former; and the only Method I can point out for that Purpose is, that any Two disinterested judicious Men of Character, be appointed to consider all the Circumstances of my Affairs, and let them very Men fix such Time or Times for Payment as they may judge possible for me to comply with, until the Whole be paid; which I shall cheerfully undertake, and doubt not but with a reasonable Share of Industry and Frugality, and God's Assistance, I may accomplish.
If neither this, nor my former Proposal, will do, let any of my Creditors who think fit to refuse them, point out any other Method, whereby I may give more general Satisfaction to my Creditors, and if in my Power it shall be readily complied with. WILLIAM DAMES.
