CAMP BEFORE PRAGUE, May

THE City of Prague is now completely invested by the Prussian Troops both Sides of the River, and is commanded on one Side, and the other by Marshal Keith on the other. Prince Charles of Lorraine, Marshal Brown, the two Princes of Saxony, Prince Louis of Wirtemberg, Prince of Modena, the Duke of Armburg, &c. are said to be in Prague. Advices being received that Count Leopold Daun is advancing with a Corps of 15000 Men from Konigsgratz, the King of Prussia has detached the Prince of Bevern with 12 or 15 Battalions and 50 Squadrons, to meet him Battle. It is said that the Austrian Army assembling at Benefchau, about two Miles beyond the Zafawa.

Berlin, May 14. It is assured that we had 2500 Men killed, and 3000 wounded in the last Battle of the 6th Instant.

Berlin, May 17. The Day before Yesterday a Courier from the King's Head Quarters at Prague brought Advice, that they had begun to bombard that City; and that his Majesty's Troops had taken an Entrenchment upon an Eminence called Ziska, which commands the City.

Brussels, May 27. Letters from Vienna that Prague was so closely invested, that it was impossible to favour the Passage of a Messenger from the Royal Highness Prince Charles of Lorraine to the Empress, they had been obliged to make a Breach under the Command of Major General Lacour, which great Numbers had been killed on both Sides. They add, that before the End of the Month, Count Daun's Army would be strong enough to go to the Relief of Prague.

Vienna, May 21. Prince Charles of Lorraine in very good Health, and the Garrison of Prague which consists of 48,000 Men, is in good Condition. That City is provided with a numerous Artillery, and Plenty of Provision and Ammunition. Count Daun has thought fit to quit the Camp at Kollin, in order to meet the Reinforcements which are in march to join him.

Paris, May 27. We have received Advice from the East-Indies, by Way of Constantinople, that the Nabob of Bengal has destroyed all the Possessions of the English upon the Ganges, to the amount of 50,000,000 of Livres, and that the Prince afterwards went upon the Coast of the Bay of Bengal, where he has declared, that he will do his utmost to destroy all that belongs to the English.

Berlin, May 28. We hear from his Majesty's Camp before Prague, that in the Night between the 23d and 24th Instant, a Body of 12000 Prussians, commanded (as the Deserters say) by Prince Charles of Lorraine in Person, made a furious Attack upon the Side of the Marshal Keith's Quarters at Weissenberg. The Rest of their Troops stood upon the Ramparts waiting the Issue of the Enterprize in order to break out and join them in Case of Success. Our Picquets sustained their first Attack with so much Bravery that the whole Army was not Time to get under Arms, which they did in less than a Quarter of an Hour. After this the Prussians were repulsed, and obliged to retreat back into the City with considerable Loss, which we cannot exactly ascertain, as they took Care to carry off their Slain and Wounded. Ours is trifling, losing one Officer of Note. Prince Ferdinand of Majesty's Brother, had his Horse killed under him, and a Ball slightly grazed his Chin; which, however, did not hinder him from being present at the whole Action, which began at Two o'clock in the Morning, and lasted till Seven. Several Prussians are come over to us on this Occasion. The Duke of Brunswick Bevern is encamped with his Army in the Neighbourhoods of Czastaw and Konigsberg, to observe the Motions of Count Daun's Army.
