BERLIN, July 2.

ACOURIER is arrived from Bohemia with very comfortable News for the King's faithful Subjects: It is dated June 27, and runs thus: "The King, who enjoys perfect Health, as do likewise the Princes his Brothers, is intent on putting all Things to Rights again, in order to pursue his Progress in Bohemia. His Army does not retire towards Silesia: On the contrary, it is going forwards again, and on the 27th of June it was encamped on the Right of the Elbe, between Melnick and Leitmeritz, and is still about 60,000 strong."

Prague, June 26. Count Brown, Field-Marshal in the Service of the Empress-Queen, Governor-General of the Kingdom of Bohemia, Knight of the Golden Fleece, &c. died here this Day of the Wound he received in the Battle of the 6th of May, universally regretted.

Brussels, June 11. An Express arrived last Friday with the agreeable News that the French had taken Embden, without any further Trouble than that of appearing before it, and summoning it to surrender, which it accordingly did. The Garrison, consisting of 400 Men; were made Prisoners of War; and the French found in the Place thirty Pieces of Cannon, fifteen Ships, and a Magazine of Oats.

Paris, July 11. The Court has received an Express from Toulon with Advice, that an English Squadron of 18 Ships arrived off that Port the 29th ult. and block'd up the Harbour, so that no Ship could go in or out; but we have Ships enough to dislodge that Squadron.

Paderborn, July 12. The Electorate of Hanover is laid under Contribution, which is exacted in Money, Provisions, and Forage.

Plymouth, July 4. Arriv'd his Majesty's Ship York from a Cruise, with three Prizes, a Ship and a Schooner from St. Domingo, both richly laden with Sugar, Coffee, and Indico; the other is a Privateer of 16 Carriage Guns: She has likewise taken another Privateer of 4 Carriage Guns, which is not yet come in.

Liverpool, June 29. On Sunday the 26th, in the Evening, arrived here the Liverpool Privateer, of this Port, Hutchinson, from a Cruise, in which he fell in with a St. Domingo Fleet of Merchantmen, consisting of about 40 Sail, convoy'd by two Men of War. One of the Rear of the Convoy took him for a Merchantman, and stood for him; but he ran, and the gave chase; thus having drawn her out of the Fleet, he stood for her; when she came up she fired a Broadside of 9 Guns (carries 18, but pierced for 28) he then fell under her Stern, gave three Cheers, opened his Port-Holes (before shut) run Yard-arm and Yard-arm, poured into her a full Broadside, tacked about immediately, and fired another; then she struck, and came in here on Monday Morning. She is a fine Ship, with a Letter of Marque, Burthen about 500 Tons, valued at upwards of 30,000 l. bound from St. Domingo for Bourdeaux. The French Captain would have ransomed her for 30,000 l. but Hutchinson would not.

Liverpool, July 5. By private Letters from Kinsale we have an Account, that the Isaac Privateer, Clatworthy, of this Port, had put in there in a most shattered Condition. On the 1st ult. in the North Channel, she fell in with a French Fleet of 16 Sail (supposed to be their Martinico Ships) who attacked her on every Side. After being dismasted, and sixty Men killed, she struck; but they would not accept of her, and still fired with an Intent to sink her; but she got clear of them by the Help of her Oars.
