A PROPOSAL for forming a Triple Union of our COLONIES in NORTH-AMERICA in order to Retrieve our LOSSES, and do like for the future.

FOR this Purpose we ought to consider several Colonies in North-America certain Parts, whose Situation, the same, and whose Interest in every Thing is most easily connected.

Our Colonies on the Continent of North-America are usually divided into the Northern and Southern Colonies; which Division only regards their Security and Protection.

But not their Security and Protection, but their Trade, we should consider all the Colonies, and distant Provinces, and different Countries, making only Three different Countries, the Northern, Middle, and Southern. Under the Northern we include Nova-Scotia, New-England, New-Jersey, New-York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, and Virginia. And in the Middle Division we include North and South-Carolina, Georgia. These Three Divisions make different and distinct Countries; separated another by natural Boundaries; different Soil, Product, &c. while the several Colonies included in each Division, is the same in respects, as well as in Point of Situation.

As to the Southern Colonies, they are naturally an Enemy; differing from one another as the Southern and Northern Part of the Country generally do; being separated other only by Land-Marks, as different the same Country commonly are.

Now I cannot see any Thing that should induce an Union of those that are included in these Three Divisions, from taking Place, and subsisting for ever, for their defence and Security at least. Whatever general-Union may be thought proper, is, this Triple Union is at least absolute for their Safety and Protection, and should subsist under any other Union of our Colonies.

The great Inconvenience arising from the Division of the British Dominions in North-America, is that the Divisions are generally too small for Safety and Defence, however convenient for the Sake of Government; but the Safety of these Divisions together, and the Security of each, is the most important Consideration.

Inconvenience may be removed, without any other that might arise from Change of Government, Alterations of Constitution, or any other Thing.

All the Colonies in this Triple Union are naturally connected and interest in one another, in the same Places; by which they may unite to defend them. But if we divide them, they are as little concerned or interested in the Safety of each other, as they are in the Safety of the Northern Colonies, on the other side of the Mountains, or the Southern Colonies, so backward to stir and unite to defend each other's Frontiers. But of all those included in this Triple Union, the same, they have all one Interest in them, which ever Province they are in, they will, and must, unite together, to secure those Frontiers at all Times, and root the French out of them.

Such an Union then may be easily formed, and will be the best Security to their Safety or Welfare in any Part of the Continent, and will let us see what may be done by such a Union of our Colonies, which may be called
