December 30. The Pomona, a French Frigate, lately arrived at Portsmouth from Brest, had brought several of the Officers and Sailors of the Tilbury, which was wrecked in America, the Captain of the Victory Privateers of London, and many other English Prisoners, who all report, that there is a very great Mortality at Brest among the Seamen lately arrived in the Fleet from Louisbourg. A Gentleman of that Place, in a Letter dated the 10th Instant, wrote to his Brother, now a Prisoner at Plymouth, speaks of it as follows: "A great Number of sick Reo-ple are arrived in the Squadron, and there is a great Mortality among them; in so much that the King's Hospital, those of the City, and of La Recovrance, the Churches of the Jesuits, Carme, lites, Seven Saints, Capuchins, Notre Dame, the Two Congregations, and La Chapelle du Cimitierre, are all filled with the Sick. And he concludes thus; "My dear Brother, the greatest Misery in the World reigns now at Brest."

We are informed that a Quadruple Alliance is concluded between England, Prussia, Denmark, and Holland; in Consequence of which the two latter will immediately join their Forces in the Common Cause against France, Austria, Russia, and Spain too, if the latter chuses to strengthen the Popish League.

Yesterday Morning, at Three o'Clock, one of his Majesty's Messengers came over London Bridge, with some Dispatches from his Majesty's Army, under the Command of Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick.

We are assured this Messenger brings Advice, that there has been an Engagement between the Hanoverians and French, and that after a very bloody Engagement the French were entirely defeated.

The Letters from Hamburg mention, that the French had burnt and sunk 40 Barges in the Weser, belonging to Bremen, and carried it so far as not to suffer the Bargemen to come on Shore, by which Cruelty they all perished either by Fire or Water.

Letters from Lisbon mention of a Plan being approved upon by his Most Faithful Majesty, for rebuilding that City with all Expedition.

It is said the Reinforcement of Troops intended for America will be 7000, and that Three General Officers are going over with them.

There are now upwards of 700 Persons employed in making Arms; One Hundred Stands purchased of the Dutch being found very defective.

A Commission is made out for Colonel Abercrombie for Lieutenant General, and he is to command in the Room of Lord Loudoun.

We are assured that Orders are sent to the Play-Houses, not to perform till after the Interment of the Princess Caroline.

Portsmouth, December 27. Yesterday arrived at Spithead the Chichester Man of War, of 70 Guns, and brought in with her a French Man of War, called Le Bien Acquis, Capt. M'Cartney, of 28 Twelve, and 2 Six-Pounders, with 300 Men, taken by the Sheerneck Man of War, of 24 Guns.
She was homeward bound from Louisbourg, and came out with several other Ships; and when taken, there were two more of our Men of War in Sight.

January 10. Private Letters by the Dutch Mail of Saturday last, from Breslau, say, that Schweidnitz had surrendered to the Prussians, and that the King of Prussia took it by Stratagem.

Letter to an eminent Hamburg Merchant, which was dated at Breslau after the Surrender of that City to the Prussians, expressly says, that the Austrians had evacuated Schweidnitz, after plundering it of every Thing that was valuable, and taking with them the Cannon, Provisions, warlike Stores, and stripping the Inhabitants, whom they left almost destitute of Victuals and Clothes.

It is reported that General Keith had defeated General Marshall, and that the 4th Men General Marshall had left Breslau with him to Prague.

Extract of a Letter from Portsmouth, dated Jan. 8.
Advice is arrived here, that Commodore Keppel, in the Torbay of 80 Guns, and Captain Wheeler, in the Illus of 50 Guns, have taken in the Bay a large French Ship from the South Sea, immenely rich, and sent her into Plymouth.
Out of the Number of Transports that are lying here, Forty of them are ordered to be got ready for Sea on the first Notice.

Some private Letters by the last Flanders Mail say that the Chevalier de St. George is dead.

The Troops intended for North America, have received Orders to be ready to march on the first Notice.

Six Men of War are getting ready to sail for the Bay in order to join the Sixteen left on the French Coast by Admiral Hawke.

The Troops quartered at Winchester, Southampton, and Ramisey, are ordered to begin their March from those Places the 13th, in order to make Room for the Troops going to America.

There are Letters in Town from Spain, which bring an Account of the great Armaments which were making there, and that every Thing appears to be Preparations for War; it is likewise said, that an Embargo is laid on all English Vessels in the Ports of Spain.

Edinburgh, Jan. 3. We are informed by a Letter from Cork, that the additional Companies for the Highland Battalions, were all embarked on the 19th ult. and ready to sail for America, under Convoy of the Hampshire Man of War.

We hear from Rhode-Island, that last Week died there, greatly lamented, the Honourable WILLIAM GREEN, Esq; Governor of that Colony.

PHILADELPHIA, March 9.
By Capt. Cobourn, from St. Christophers, we have Advice, that Commodore Moore, in the Cambridge, and the Buckingham, belonging to the Squadron under his Command, had destroyed a Fort situated on 18 Guns; that he had sunk three Privateers, and taken one; that when he failed it was said they were blocking up Fort St.
Pierre's, and that some other Ships of War were ordered to their Assistance. His Majesty's Ships on that Station are, 1 of 80 Guns; 1 of 74; 1 of 64; 3 of 50; 1 of 40; 2 of 20 Guns, and 4 Sloops.

Last Night Captain Brown, from Carthage, came up to Town. He informs us, that while he was there, a French Privateer came in, and brought Advice, that Admiral Coates fell in with a French Fleet, bound for Hispaniola from Old France, took twelve Merchantmen, and drove two Frigates ashore.

ANNAPOLIS, March 16.
We are informed by the latest Letters from London, that Lord Loudoun, Lord Hay, General Webb, and Col. Prevost, are ordered immediately Home: That Lord Loudoun has lost his Regiment at Home, and the Royal Americans: That Lord George Sackville is Chief of the Command to the Eastward; General Abercrombie to command in Chief on the Continent: That Colonels Stanwix, Forbes, Howe, Whitmore, and Lancaster, are made Brigadier-Generals; Col. Monckton to have the Second Battalion; Gage, Burton, Haviland, Boquet, and another whose Name is forgot, are made Colonels; Col. Broadstreet is made Quarter-Master-General; and to Rank as a Lieutenant-Colonel.
Expedition to Crown-Point is postponed: That an Account of 30 Sail of French West-India Ships, insured in England from 60 to 75 per Cent: 17 of them are brought into the Port of Bristol. Since the Turn of Affairs in Silesia and Hanover, all Thoughts of Peace are taken away for some Time.
The Armament for North America is to be from 6 to 10,000 Men. The King of Prussia is returning to Lower Saxony, to head the Army commanded by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, and is to be made a Knight of the Garter.

Our General Assembly is to meet here again, on Thursday next.
