A MESSAGE from the GOVERNOR to the ASSEMBLY.

GENTLEMEN,
BEFORE I received your Message of the Twenty-fourth Instant, in Answer to mine of the Day before, I intended to have spoke to in public; but, on his acquainting me, that the Messengers had heard of the Arrival of some Parties of Cherokee Warriors in Virginia, and were ready to be dispatched, that they might put the Indians who sent them on their Guard with respect to these Parties, I did not think it proper to detain them for a formal Conference, but gave them my Answer as soon as it could be got ready.

You will see by the Minutes now laid before you, that I reminded Teedyuscung of the Prisoners remaining among the Indians; assuring him it would give great Satisfaction to me, the Council, Assembly, and all the People of the Province, to see as many of them brought here as was possible. This I said in the Presence of the Messengers, and other Indians. To himself much more was said, intending it should likewise be said in their Presence; but he advised me to the contrary, telling me, that these Messengers would return instantly with agreeable Answers from the Indians, and till then no more need to be said, and it would do more Harm than Good.

No Opportunity has offered, since the Treaty at Easton, for my taking any Measures respecting the Restoring of the Prisoners, more than reminding Teedyuscung of his Engagements on this Account, which I have not failed frequently to do, tho' not formally, as that would have answered no Purpose. The very first Opportunity that offers, with these or any other Indians, shall be very heartily embraced, and the Matter urged upon them with all the Zeal and Care in my Power.

Not knowing how far an Invitation to the Chiefs of these eight Tribes of Indians, who it seems live at great Distances from one another, might interfere with the Measures taken by his Majesty's Commander in Chief, or Sir William Johnson, the Superintendent of Indian Affairs in this District, I have not ventured to make it; but have transmitted to the General Copies of the Conferences, and of your Message, and mentioned the Advantages that would arise from such Invitation, desiring his Advice therein.

I have likewise dispatched a Messenger to Colonel Washington, or the commanding Officer of the Virginia Forces, at Winchester, with an Account of these Conferences, and the good Disposition of the Indians; and desired it might be forthwith communicated to the Cherokees, and they be requested to have Regard thereto in their future Excursions.
March 28, 1758. WILLIAM DENNY.

On Wednesday, the 22d Instant, between Ten and Eleven at Night, a small Shock of an Earthquake was felt here.

ANNAPOLIS, April 6.

Friday last his Excellency the Governor passed a Law, entitled, An Act for Encouragement of a Party of Cherokee Indians, which have been some Time on the Frontiers of this Province, and for Payment of the reasonable Expences of their Interpreter and Conductor.

Saturday last Yewtofsitee (otherwise called Round O) the great Cherokee Warrior, with Eight others of that Nation, entertain'd a large Number of Spectators in Town, with a WAR DANCE.

By Letters from London we have an Account of the Death of Capt. JEHOSHAPHAT RAWLINGS, of this Place; who died of the Small-Pox.

The Captains Tipple and Stracban from hence are safe arrived in England.

His Excellency Governor SHARPE'S Answer to the Address of the Lower House inserted in our last:

Gentlemen of the Lower House of Assembly,

I AM glad to find by the first of your Yesterday's Addresses, that the Instances of his Majesty's paternal Care for us, mentioned in the Letter that I laid before you, a due Sense of the Interest this Province hath in the Event of the ensuing Campaign, and the King's gracious Promise to recommend it to Parliament, to grant a proper Compensation for the Expences that his good Subjects in these Colonies may be put to this Summer by an extraordinary Exertion of their Force, have made a suitable Impression on you; and I return you Thanks for the Assurance you are pleased to give me, that, with the greatest Chearfulness, you will do every Thing that can be reasonably expected from you, as Representatives of the People of Maryland.

Tho' I did not think it necessary to mention it in my Speech at the Opening of this Session, yet it was not without Pleasure that I read that Part of Mr.
Secretary Pitt's Letter, where he seems to recommend it to the several Governors to give Commissaries to such Gentlemen of their respective Provinces, as, from their Weight and Credit with the People, and their Zeal for the Public Service, may be best disposed and enabled to quicken and effectuate the speedy Levying of a Number of Men; because it is a Measure, which (as you know) I have always taken when Men have been wanted in this Province, and indeed it has not hitherto failed of having the desired Effect: Besides I always thought that those Persons were most likely to behave well in Defence of their Country, whose Interest in it was considerable, their Friends and Relations numerous; and the Commendation that Brigadier General Stanwix (who had the immediate Command of the Maryland Forces last Summer) was pleased to give the Officers to the Earl of Loudoun and Myself, confirms me in that Opinion.

HOR^o. SHARPE.
