NEW - H A V E N, September 23.

Wednesday last arrived here Capt. Joshua Ray, in 26 Days from Barbados; and Thursday arrived Capt. Thomas Rice, in 33 Days from Antigua, and 23 from Turks Island.—By the former we hear, that on the 23d of August, happened a violent Storm of Wind at Carlisle-Bay, and Bridge-Town, which began at S. W. about six in the Morning, and continued till 4 P. M. by which 11 Vessels, Snows, Brigs and Sloops, were driven on Shore, and that most of them would be lost.

NEW - Y O R K, October 2.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, Sept. 17.
—“By an Express from Boston, which arrived here last Friday, we are informed, that the Troops are on their March from thence to this Place, by which we flatter ourselves that we shall have Possession of Ticonderoga this Fall; but this depends very much on the speedy March of the Troops, as the Season is far advanced.—Our Army this Year in general is not so sickly as in Years past; most of the Invalids are sent down to this Place, where they have a Permit to return to their Homes to recover their Health, &c.—A few Days ago a Flag of Truce came to the Lake, from Mr. Montcalm at Ticonderoga, in which he threatened to come and drive our Army from that Place, if they did not leave it by a certain Day; however his Word is to be taken in this Case, as in many others: It may not be improper to acquaint you of his Scheme in this Affair; he had got all his Ammunition, Stores, Provision, &c. at Frontenac, in order to make a Descent on the German Flats and Schenectady, and would probably have succeeded, and perhaps as sudden as Col. Bradstreet against Cadaraqui.—For it is certain Montcalm knew nothing of Bradstreet's March; and by his threatening he expected to draw all our Forces to the Lake, together with the Militia; so that the Country would be left naked. And by our Scouts we learn, that he had actually Battoes in the Lake, and floating Batteries, and to all Appearance ready to push off, with a very large Encampment, and all this Show was, that he might the better surprize us. But how greatly must he be surprized to hear, that the Day his Forces began their March from Canada to Frontenac, the latter Fort surrendered to Col.
Bradstreet; in short, all Things considered, the taking of Frontenac is of more Importance to this Part of the Country, than People in general imagine.”

Extract of a Letter from a Frenchman, who was a Prisoner on Long-Island, dated Hamburg, 31st May, 1758.
—“We arrived here safe, after a happy Passage of 6 Weeks. I find the bad Success of our Arms; you can now say the Protestant Cause has gained the Victory, by Sea and by Land; your Prussian King is really an ALEXANDER, and I believe more. We have begun well, and finished unlucky. The Hand of God is heavy upon us, we have been too proud of our good Success, in the Beginning, and we have forgot the Author of it; but he is a pitying God; I hope he will remember his afflicted People, and the same Hand with which we have been punished, shall comfort us.
I believe this Year will be a bloody one. They say the Isle-Royal, or Cape-Breton, is taken, but I hope not.”

The Norwich Man of War, Capt. Darby, with the Money on board for the Forces in North-America, stood for Halifax, with two Storeships, when he heard that Cape-Breton was taken, so that she is not yet arrived at Boston.
By a Letter from Capt. Doran, of the Privateer Brig New-York of this Port, we learn, that the Ship he took in Company with the Columbine, of this Port also, and carried into Cape-Breton, would, with her Cargo (which cost in France 29120 Dollars) be condemned in a few Days, it having been proved on Oath, by some of the Crew, that both Hull and Cargo are the Property of French Merchants at Bayonne, and that the Spaniards were taken in at St. Sebastian.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated Sept. 21.
—“Col. Bradstreet is returned in good Health from his Expedition against Cadaraqui, and is as hearty and alert as ever, notwithstanding the great Fatigues he has underwent; he, nor none of his Army having slept more than an Hour at a Time; after they set out from Oswego, till they returned there again. There was an immense Quantity of Provisions found in the Fort, designed for the Forts to the Southward, and for an Army that was soon to have assembled at Oswego, to have cleared the Mohawk's River, and penetrated as far as Albany:

The Army was to have consisted of 1500 Regulars, as many Canadians, and a great Number of Indians, as well French, as those pretended to be in the English Interest; but since the Return of Col.
Bradstreet, the Indians are extremely complaisant at the Carrying-Place; at which Place Col. Bradstreet's whole Army is arrived, having destroyed the two Vessels on the Lake, and brought off as much Plunder as they possibly could, which is to be equally divided among the Men, as the Commander has entirely given up his Right to any Share whatsoever.”

Last Saturday Week a fine new Ship came down from the Country, designed for a Privateer: She is to mount 18 Six-pounders, and we hear is to be commanded by Captain Lawrence.

The following Privateers are now fitting out here, viz. The Ship Sturdy-Beggar, Capt. Troup; the Wolfe, (late King William III.) Seymour; the Duke of Cumberland, Lilly; the General-Johnson, Little; the Royal-Hunter, Harrifon; the Brig Earl of Loudoun, Wallace; the True-Briton, Miller; De Lancey, Skinner; the Charming-Sally, Dwigth; the Schooner Sampson, Phoenix; the Sloop Tyger, M'Dougal; and, the fortunate Harlequin, Wright.

PHILADELPHIA, October 5.

Our last Advices from Albany are, that General Amherst, with the Troops from Boston, was expected there as Yesterday. That on the 24th ult.
Rogers, with 150 Men, set out for Ticonderoga in the Night: That on the 25th a French Deserter came in to our Camp at the Lake, who left a Scouting Party he came out with the Day before, which was (as he said) to lie on the Road between Fort-Edward and the Lake, in order to get a Prisoner, as the French were at a Loss what to do for Want of Intelligence; and that several Parties of ours were sent out in Search of it: And that it was thought at Albany, that the late Affair of Rogers's, and Bradstreet's Expedition to Cadaraqui, had given a Turn to the Indians; and that the French Interest with them seemed to decline fast.

A Letter from Fort-Hunter, dated the 15th ult. mentions, that a few Days before, one Walter Bell, and his Son, were killed and scalped by the Indians, in Hanover Township, Lancaster County; and that another Son of said Bell's, and a Soldier, were carried off by them.
Yesterday the Privateer Knowles, Capt. Turner, returned from a Cruise, without any other Success than what has been formerly mentioned.
