

M A

MUND

T HERE
general
any during Hessians, consisted
the Command of the French, under the Duke 112,000, and the Prince with 18,000 more. 7
Hour, when Number Hessians have lost about of Cannon; the French
The Hessians had indeed of Situation; notwithstanding was rather inclined to more especially the Mills for.

Frankfurt, July 27. Prague, that a great R Henry's Army has actual his Brother, and that the est Apprehensions.

Brassell, July 31. A
from Marshal Daun's July, his Army was not that of the King of Prussia

Hague, August 2. A Adviser, his Serene High Hesse is again retired to gency of Hanover to S which say, the French be sent to England: T again at Kuremonde, an of Half a Million of Cr of the Austrian Low Co

Savona, June 17. A discovered here, which is a general Massacre of all whom the Janissaries, ex tute of being the princip of Provisions.

Potsdam, July 12. T the Command of General wards Mecklenburg; accordi design to advance toward burgh, and to the Neig upon the Oder. The Co neral Brown, which is Thorn; is designed to join

Vizna, July 15. The some Thousands of Men under the Command of Majesty's, and is resolv'd

The Russian light Tro Jesia; they expect their Country the 26th and 28 propose to begin their Op have abandoned Cassel.

Cassel, July 26. The fers of all Hesse, which bitans, tho' their Fear good Discipline Prince So

st. among the Troops.
Prague, July 26. The all his heavy Baggage and use stays at Konigsgratz, lands to keep his Ground ed on the Hills between from whence they can di the Prussians; there is not part the two Armies.

Ratisbon, July 31. W hemis, that the King of the Circle of Ratisbon and 600 Recruits.

Prague, August 1. We one Days with an Ac are returning into the C Marshal Daun had receiv