MAR

LONDON,

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty, the humble ADDRESS of the Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious SOVEREIGN,

AMIDST the joyful Acclamations of your faithful People, Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons, of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, congratulate your Majesty on the Arms in the Conquest of the island of Louisburg, the Reduction of Cape-Breton and St. John's; and given to a considerable Part of the

An Event so truly glorious to your Majesty's Arms, and so fatal to the Views and Naval Power of France; and so favourable a Prospect of the Recovery of our Possessions in America so unobtainable, and in a great Measure answer'd, when we beheld the French Armies, on the Coast of Africa, their Ships in their Ports at Home, and their Trade spread over all their Coasts.

May these valuable Acquisitions, ever continue a Part of the Empire, as an effectual Check to the Ambition of a Nation, whose repeated Usurpations obliged your Majesty to this just and necessary War; and whose Successes, in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Conduct, and Resolution of your Majesty's Armies, convince the World of the inferiority and Resources of your Kingdoms, your Majesty's Enemies to yield to your Majesty's Honourable Peace.

In all Events, we shall most cheerfully contribute, to the utmost of our Power, to support your Majesty in the vigorous Measures so nobly designed and executed. And it shall be our most fervent Prayer, that your Majesty may long, very long, enjoy the steady Affections of your Majesty's Loyal and Affectionate Subjects, and that the Crown of these Realms may be equally bright, on the Heads of your Majesty's Descendants to latest Posterity.

To which his Majesty was pleas'd to give the following ANSWE R.

RECIVE this dutiful and loyal Address with Mark of your constant Affection to my Government; and I return you my Thanks for it. The steady Affections of my Subjects, united in a hearty Zeal for the Honour of my Crown, will, I doubt not, enable me to prosecute with Vigour and Success, a War which is necessarily undertaken, to defend the Rights, and valuable Possessions of my Kingdoms, against the unjust Attempts of my Enemies. The City of London may always depend on my Protection and Favour; and upon my consideration of the Extent of their Trade and Navigation.
